

o's upset bid

Their goal-line stand put them in position to win the game," Osborne said. "I thought we could get up by 14 pts."

Colorado then drove 80 yards and ended on a Salaam 1-yard dive to tie it 21-17.

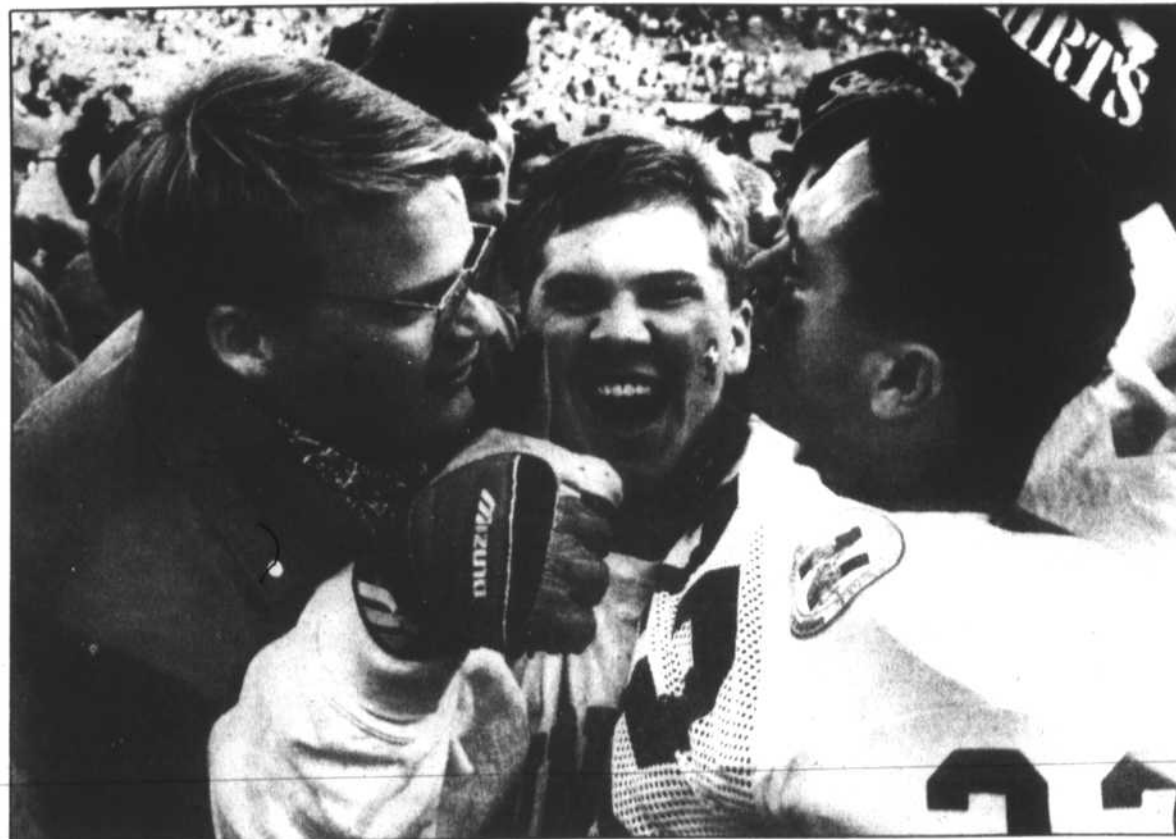

After Nebraska was forced to punt at 1:43 left, it was up to the Cornhuskers.

Nebraska defensive coordinator Tom McBurnie told his players that it was their job to win the game.

"I told them you can't win championships without defense. Defense wins championships. Period."
