

Photos by Kiley Timperley

Clockwise from below: Nebraska linebacker Darren Williams pulls down Kansas' Chris Powell by the ankle during the second quarter of Nebraska's 21-20 win Saturday. John Reece (6) and Tyrone Williams (8) celebrate as the referee calls Kansas' doom—the incomplete pass on the Jayhawks' last-minute, two-point attempt. Nebraska quarterback Tommie Frazier scrambles to break free from Kansas defender Harold Harris in the fourth quarter Saturday. Nebraska I-back Calvin Jones, right, is chased by Kansas linebacker Ronnie Ward during his 51-yard romp in the fourth quarter. The run set up the Huskers' final touchdown.

Jones runs over Kansas again, but credits Cornhusker defense

By Derek Samson
Staff Reporter

LAWRENCE, Kan. — Calvin Jones must feel a little empty now, knowing that he'll never again get to run wild on the turf of Kansas' Memorial Stadium.

Jones rushed 29 times for 195 yards in Nebraska's 21-20 win over Kansas Saturday. The outing was his best since he totaled 294 yards as a freshman against Kansas in Lawrence.

The 5-foot-11, 210-pound junior credited the rest of his team for his success.

"My effort was there but ... I have to give a lot of credit to my blockers," Jones said. "Both the linemen blocked great and the receivers downfield. The fullbacks also did a great job."

Jones, who was held out of the majority of last week's practices with a flu virus, has also been hampered throughout the season with a knee injury he suffered in Nebraska's opener.

"In the first half, I felt myself getting fatigued rather quickly," Jones said. "I felt a lot better in the second half but I did seem to get fatigued easily from the virus."

But with 10 minutes left in the game, Jones overcame the virus when he broke free for 51 yards to Kansas' 8 yard line. The run set up a Tommie Frazier-to-Trumane Bell touchdown that gave Nebraska a 21-14 advantage.

"That was an isolation play that got rolling behind a lot of great blocking," Jones said. "After that play, I

Game stats

Nebraska 21
Kansas 20

SCORING		1st	2nd	3rd	4th	Total
Nebraska		7	7	0	7	21
Kansas		7	0	7	6	20

SCORING BY QUARTER		Time left
Nebraska	Kansas
	7	Asheiki Preston 30-yd. pass to Dwayne Chandler
7		Calvin Jones 4-yd. run
14		Tommie Frazier-Gerald Armstrong 8-yd. pass
	14	Preston 5-yd. run
21		Frazier-Trumane Bell 10 yd. pass
	20	Preston-June Henley 3-yd. pass

RUSHING		Net yards	Ave.	Long gain	TD
C. Jones	29	195	6.7	51	1
T. Frazier	9	35	4.6	15	0
TOTAL	52	297	6.0	51	0

PASSING		Comp.-Att.	Comp. Pct.	Yds.	TD
T. Frazier	3-5		60	31	0
B. Berringer	4-7		57	40	2
TOTAL	7-12		58	71	2

PASS RECEIVING		No.	Yards	TD
G. Armstrong		2	18	1
C. Dixon		1	16	0
TOTAL		7	71	2

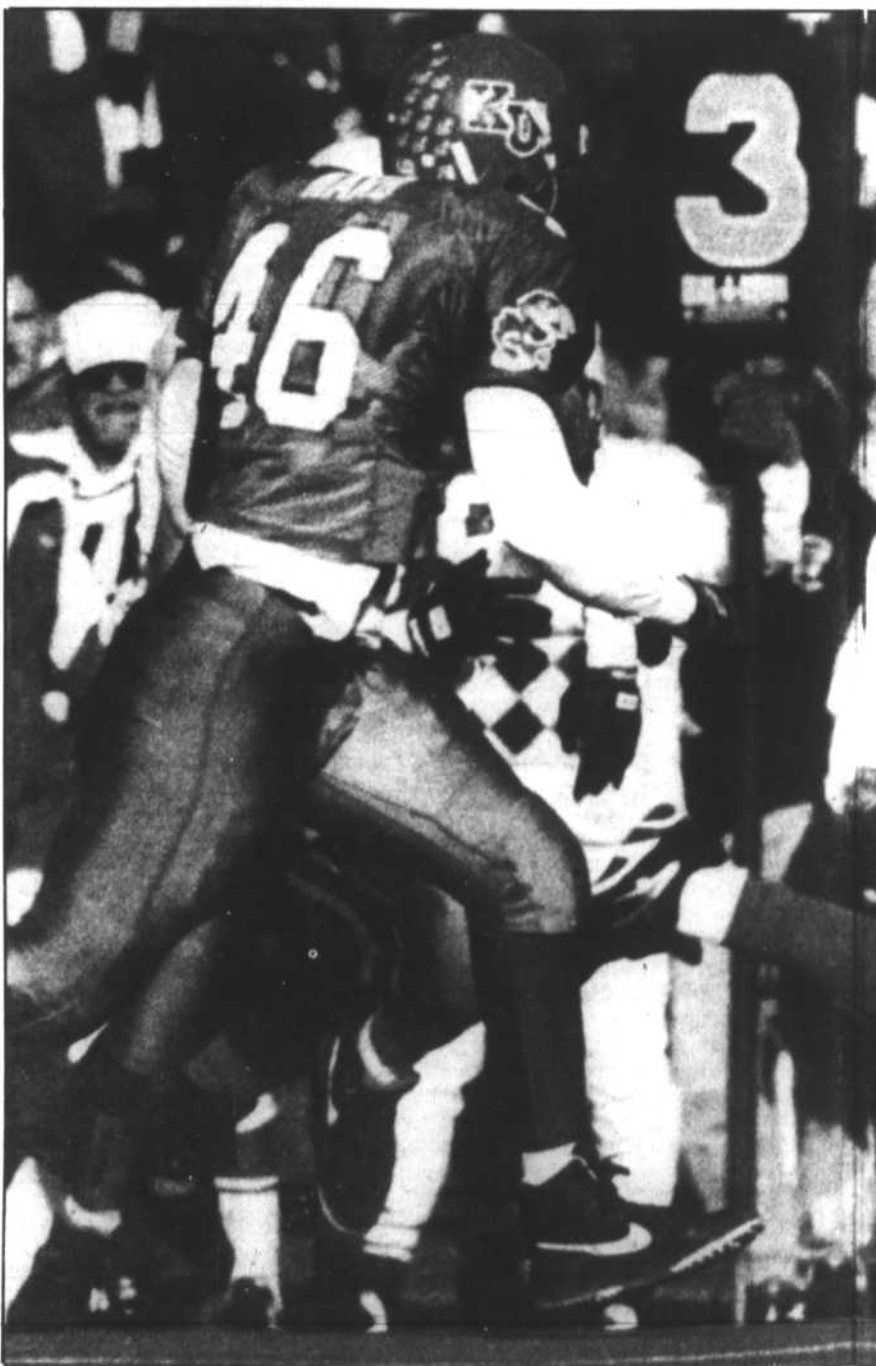

TACKLES		Total	Unasst.	Assist.
M. Anderson		8	4	4
E. Stewart		7	6	1
K. Ramaekers		7	3	4

RUSHING		Net yards	Ave.	Long gain	TD
J. Henley	37	148	4.0	15	1
A. Preston	7	16	2.2	6	1
TOTAL	50	179	3.6	15	2

PASSING		Comp.-Att.	Comp. Pct.	Yds.	TD
A. Preston	13-19		68	118	1
TOTAL	13-19		68	118	1

PASS RECEIVING		No.	Yards	TD
G. Ballard		4	39	0
D. Chandler		1	30	1
TOTAL		13	118	1

TACKLES		Total	Unasst.	Assist.
C. Maumalanga		10	2	8
R. Ward		10	7	3

See JONES on 8

DN graphic