THIS MEANS WAR.

Tuesday, November 23, 8 p.m.
Lied Center for the Performing Arts

It is ironic that the most brutal human conflicts often give rise to the most beautiful works of art. Our November 23rd program includes pieces inspired by two historic military struggles — the Russian Revolution, and the Vietnam War.

Join us for "Real Life, Real Music" with our special guests Dylana Jenson and James "Kimo" Williams.

Dylana Jenson
Violin Virtuoso
Guest Artist

James "Kimo" Williams
Guest Composer

Williams Symphony for the Sons of Nam
Mozart Violin Concerto No. 5
Shostakovich Symphony No. 11 ("The Year 1905") Op. 103

Words on Music: Join us at 7:05 for a very special preconcert talk — "Meet the Composer" with James "Kimo" Williams.

Tickets available weekdays through the Lied Center box office at 472-4747.
(Student tickets 1/2 price.)

Lincoln Orchestra Association

825 M St., Suite 214 Lincoln, NE 68508

This concert made possible in part with support from Deloitte & Touche, Chuck and Marita Burmeister, and the Nebraska Arts Council.

International Affairs Music and Dance

International Affairs (IA) and International Student Organization (ISO) will host the last cultural event of the year for international students and their friends on Saturday, November 20. It will be starting at 7:00 pm in the Culture. The theme is "Learning about American Music and Dance." We have invited musicians and dancers to introduce and demonstrate to us American music and dance, and we will learn how to dance ourselves. Also at the event, International Student Athletic Committee is going to award medals and trophies to winners in the 1993 IUNL International Student Olympics. Certificates of appreciation will be presented to the contributors of ISO. Refreshments and snacks will be provided. Admission is free. Partial funding for this program has been provided by the United States Information Agency, through a grant from the Cooperative Grants Program of NAFSA: Association of International Educators.
