Interested in public policy affecting poor Nebraskans? In welfare reform? In health care for the poor? In the legal rights of the poor? If so, the Nebraska Center for Legal Services seeks interns/volunteers to work with experienced staff on these issues during the next Unicameral (January - April). Give Milo a call, 477-6680.

International Affairs Music and Dance

International Affairs (IA) and International Student Organization (ISO) will host the last cultural event of the year for international students and their friends on Saturday, November 20. It will be starting at 7:00 pm in the Culture. The theme is "Learning about American Music and Dance." We have invited musicians and dancers to introduce and demonstrate to us American music and dance, and we will learn how to dance ourselves. Also at the event, International Student Athletic Committee is going to award medals and trophies to winners in the 1993 UNL International Student Olympics. Certificates of appreciation will be presented to the contributors of ISO. Refreshments and snacks will be provided. Admission is free. Partial funding for this program has been provided by the United States Information Agency, through a grant from the Cooperative Grants Program of NAFSA: Association of International Educators.
