

NU hitters lose in Tiger outing

From Staff Reports

Nebraska dropped to 0-3 in the Big Eight after losing a doubleheader to Missouri Sunday in Columbia, Mo.

The Cornhuskers, 12-12, managed just four runs in three games against the Tigers.

Missouri, 17-7 and 3-2 in the Big Eight, opened the weekend by beating the Huskers 3-1 on Friday. After a rainout Saturday, the Tigers came back to beat Nebraska 5-2 and 2-1 Sunday.

In Sunday's first game, Nebraska had the leadoff hitter on base in seven of the nine innings. But the Huskers couldn't come back after Missouri scored three runs in the second and two in the fifth inning.

In the second game Sunday, Nebraska rallied in the eighth inning. With two outs in the inning, Derek Dukart doubled to left field. David Gonzalez then doubled to right center to drive in Dukart.

After Scott Wulfining was hit by a pitch, David Crain flew out to left to end the rally.

All-American Darin Erstad had his 20-game hit streak snapped in the second game Sunday.

with a 9.9 on the balance beam.

"We are just about right where we want to be," Kendig said. "Going into regionals, our confidence is up and we feel that we can do well."

Other Huskers placing in individual events included Jenkins (second in the vault and first in the uneven bars), DeHaan (second in the uneven bars), Kristi Camp (third in the uneven bars) and Bartlett (first in the balance beam).

NOTES:

● DeHaan was named Big Eight Newcomer of the Year. The freshman from Sioux Falls, S.D., was one of two Husker freshmen to compete in every event of every meet this season.

● Kendig was named Big Eight Coach of the Year. In his first year at Nebraska, he coached the Huskers to their first Big Eight title in four years and has Nebraska in position to make its first trip to the national meet since 1990.
