Third marriage for Roseanne

NEW YORK (AP) — Roseanne has met her match, again. And this time he's even bigger than she is. The ample TV star got engaged Friday to her blond bodyguard, Ben Thomas, her publicist Kevin Campbell said. Campbell said Wednesday that the couple had not set a date. Roseanne is not yet divorced from Tom Arnold, but she's been flashing a diamond engagement ring. TV's "Hard Copy" reported Tuesday.

Singer wants test dismissed

ASPEN, Colo. (AP) — John Denver wants a judge to throw out a blood-alcohol test taken after the singer crashed his Porsche into a tree.

Denver was incapable of consenting to the test, his lawyer Walter Gerash said Tuesday. The singer had a concussion and had 14 stitches on his forehead in the August accident.

Gerash said Denver would plead innocent to the drunken driving charge, which carries up to a year in jail and a $1,500 fine.

The event is for "anybody who wants to enjoy some music and celebrate their faith in Christ and see what contemporary worship can be all about," he said.

Shinn said a group of Christian Challenge members originally planned the event by itself, but more groups had become involved.

"It's a cooperative effort among all the Christian groups on campus," he said.

Organizers of the event expect at least 100 people to attend. There is no admission charge, and free refreshments will be provided. In case of rain, the concert will be moved to the University Lutheran Chapel's basement.

The bottom line for Shinn is to see that people get a different view of faith in God than they usually get and then recognize that view through singing.

"We want people to see the loving, caring side of God. ... There's so much joy that comes through celebrating that."
