The Chancellor's Commission on the Status of People of Color is seeking applications and nominations for individuals to fill two vacancies immediately. The mission of this commission is to inform and advise the Chancellor on all matters affecting the learning and work environment and to plan the social climate for ethnic racial minorities at UNL. The Commission meets monthly and is composed of 14 members: four undergraduate students who reflect four major U.S. racial minority groups, one graduate student, four faculty, four staff, and one person representing the administration. Currently there is one opening in the faculty category and one in the undergraduate student category. An African American undergraduate student is being sought. The current commissioners will consider all applications and will then submit to the Chancellor two nominations for each position. The Chancellor appoints all members. Members serve for 3 year terms, except for undergraduate students who may be reappointed after one year. If you are interested, or if you care to nominate someone, please submit a letter of application/nomination to: Yenbo Wu 1237 R Street, City Campus 0221 Undergraduate applicants should come in to 1237 R street to pick up an application form. Completed applications should be in by November 25.

THE FAR SIDE By GARY LARSON

"Look. You had five bones, right? Your friend Zooky comes over, stays awhile, then leaves. Now you have four bones, right? ... You don't have to be a 'Lassie' to figure this one out."
