Some Husker seniors' seasons not finished

From Staff Reports

The Nebraska football team is all but a memory now, but seven seniors still have one game left to play. The seniors will play in three exhibition "all-star" games later this month.

Cornerback Barron Miles, linebacker Ed Stewart and offensive tackle Rob Zatechka will travel to San Francisco to participate in the East-West Shrine game on Jan. 14 at 3 p.m.

Husker offensive guard Brenden Stai and defensive tackle Terry

Connealy will play their final collegiate game at the Senior Bowl in Mobile, Ala., on Jan. 21 at 1 p.m., and linebackers Donta Jones and Troy Dumas will play in the Hula Bowl in Honolulu on Jan. 22 at 7 p.m.

All three of the exhibition games will be broadcast live on ESPN.

Miles, who was named a third-team All-American and first-team All-Big Eight, finished the season with 40 tackles and a team-high five interceptions. Miles also had four blocked kicks this season. He was Nebraska's first two-time first-team All-Big Eight cornerback since Bruce Pickens in 1989-90.

Stewart had 96 tackles this season, including 3 1/2 sacks. He was a finalist for the Butkus Award, given to the nation's best linebacker. He ranks fifth all time at Nebraska with 257 career tackles. Stewart was named to four All-American teams.

Zatechka and Stai helped anchor a Husker offensive line that paved the way for the top rushing attack in the country.

National Champs to get another shot Sunday

From Staff Reports

The 1995 Orange Bowl can be seen once again this Sunday.

WOWT-TV Channel 6 in Omaha will rebroadcast the game pitting Miami against Nebraska at 10:30 p.m.

Dave Webber, sports director at Channel 6, said there was huge demand for the rebroadcast of the game.

"It seems like everybody I talked to wanted to see it again," he said. "The station got numerous calls."

"We want to give people who didn't get a chance to see it the chance to see it or record it."

But before the station was cleared to run the game, it had to check with the university, the Orange Bowl and NBC. The game will be run in its entirety, including commercials.

Students get to celebrate title on Friday

From Staff Reports

Students at UNL will get a chance to celebrate the Nebraska football team's national title Friday, Jan. 13.

Chancellor Graham Spanier has invited all employees and students to wear red and white that day and to include their signatures on large congratulatory cards. The cards will be placed in the Nebraska Union and East Campus Union from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

These cards will be presented to the football team and be put on display.

"The entire campus community hasn't had an opportunity to celebrate the championship yet," said Phyllis Larsen, director of public relations. "Since classes start up again this week, we decided to plan an activity for all employees and students to demonstrate their Nebraska pride."

Andrew Loudon, president of the Association of Students at the University of Nebraska, said the celebration is much-deserved.

"The student body feels especially proud of our fellow students on the team," he said. "We are looking forward to showing our support by wearing red and white on Friday."

GO BIG RED!

To celebrate the 1994 National Champion Nebraska Cornhuskers, Nebraska Bookstore and Intellicall are giving away $200 worth of long distance telephone usage. Stop by Nebraska Bookstore today through January 13th and register to win one of the new University of Nebraska calling cards.
