

Society in Turmoil.
MAD FOREST
February 16-18 & 21-25
TICKETS ON SALE NOW!
CALL 472.2073
THEATRE ARTS & DANCE
BOX OFFICE: TEMPLE BUILDING, 12TH & R STREETS
UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA-LINCOLN

American Heart Association
Fighting Heart Disease and Stroke
Research gave him a future

Bret Gottschall/DN

ALTERNATIVE TAN
Will MEET ANY ADVERTISED TAN SALON PRICE.
• 2 Locations
• 17 Individually Airconditioned Rooms
• Walk-ins Welcome
ALL TANNING ACCELERATORS
$1 OFF
48th & R 466-1201 • 36th & Hwy 2 421-1511

Which ever trail you choose.
Choose the Moose's Tooth.

THE MOOSE'S TOOTH
outdoor sports & travel
40th & O St 489-4849
WINTER SALE!
up to 50% off
Patagonia, The North Face, Solstice & Marmot

UNL Campus Recreation,
Outdoor Adventures
Spring Semester '95
Weekend and Day Trips:

	date:	member cost:
Caving-Devil's Icebox	3/3-5	$75
Crane Watch	3/3-5	$50
Dismal River Canoeing	4/7-9	$60
Basic Rock Climbing	4/7-9	$65
Day Mountain Bike	4/8	$12
Upper Niobrara Canoe	4/14-16	$55
Day Hike	4/15	$12
Basic Rock Climbing	4/21-23	$65
Weekend Bike Tour	4/21-23	$45
Day Canoe	4/22	$20

Questions? call 472-4777 or 472-3467
*Non-members and the General Public may sign-up at a slightly higher rate. UNL students are considered 'members.'
Look for our Summer Trip Schedule soon! Sign up now for Mountain Biking in Moab, UT, and Backpacking in the Badlands, SD right after school lets out.
Outdoor Leadership Course
Late Summer '95
This new course will offer a very unique opportunity to develop and improve the skills needed to lead outdoor trips. Instruction will cover: white water boating, backpacking, rock climbing, minimum impact living, environmental issues, group management, leadership, risk management, etc... The course will last approximately two weeks, and will be geared towards persons interested in enhancing their wilderness leadership, education, and recreation skills.
Call 472-4777.

Disco stays alive at local bar

By Joel Strauch
Senior Reporter

The light bounces off the disco ball, illuminating the room sporadically.

People take to the floor dressed in clothes that no one should be buried in and dance in ways not seen in the past 20 years. The arms of the crowd spell to the sounds of the Village People's "YMCA."

No, you haven't stepped into a time machine and leaped back into the veritable heart of the 1970s.

You walked into the Hurricane, 1118 O St. on a Thursday night, Disco Night.

Jake Goehring, a bartender for the Hurricane, said Thursday night was the busiest night of the week for the club.

"It fills up around 10:30 p.m.," Goehring said, "and they stay here 'til last call."

Dale Young, the KLDZ disc jockey who hosts Disco Night, said Thursdays at the Hurricane were unbelievable.

"It's huge," he said. "Six hundred or 700 people show up, and it keeps getting bigger."

There are a lot of reasons to explain the incurable bout of Thursday Night Fever that Lincoln is suffering from.

Troy "Bubba" Way, the Hurricane manager, said it was because the music was so danceable.

"It may be a fad people are going through," Way said, "but it's really good for us."

Goehring said the appeal stemmed from the fact that the music was so different from everywhere else.

"There's a lot of flashback stuff," he said. "People hear songs they used to hear on the radio as kids and dance or sing along."

Young agreed that people came for the nostalgia.

"It's music that everyone knows the words to and can sing along with," he said.

Most of the people there said they were trying to reclaim a bit of the past or were just checking out the atmosphere.

Kathy Frizzell of Lincoln said disco was her brand of music.

"I grew up listening to it," Frizzell said.

Frizzell also came to see what people were wearing.

"There's quite a weird assortment of people in here," she said. "There are people who weren't even born in the '70s, and they are dressing '70s."

Jeri Weberg of Lincoln came to the Hurricane because she heard it was Disco Night on the radio.

"My mom used to teach disco," Weberg said, "so I really know the music."

But not everyone showed up for the music.

Tim Decker of Lincoln said he would rather listen to Pearl Jam.

"I'm not into disco, but I'll tolerate it for the $2 pitchers before 9 o'clock," he said. "It's kind of lame, nothing like a mosh pit."

"This is Disco Night?" he asked.

Young had an explanation for the recent disco revival.

"It seems like the music of 20 years ago is what's it," he said. "In the '80s, the '60s was it. And now it's the '70s."

POWER RELEASES

HOT, HERE & ON SALE

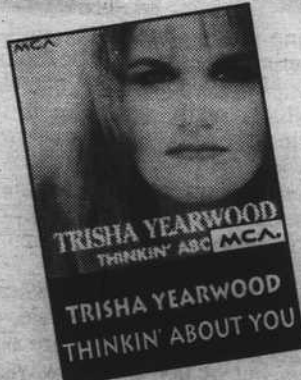

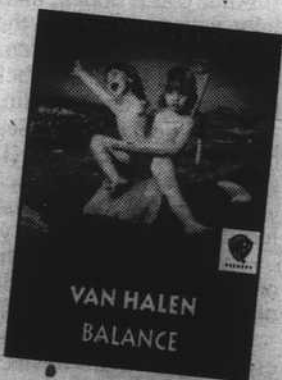

HOMER'S
Twisters

OMAHA • LINCOLN • BELLEVUE
GRETNA • COUNCIL BLUFFS

$11.88*
CD

*UNLESS OTHERWISE NOTED

$8.88*
TP

ADVERTISED TITLES ON SALE THROUGH 3/2/95

- IN LINCOLN:
Downtown 16th
1637 "P" Street
MUZE location
Edgewood
5200 South 56th Street
Downtown 14th
1339 "O" Street
MUZE location
East
6105 "O" Street
MUZE location
East Park Plaza
220 North 66th Street
Van Dorn
2711 South 48th Street
IN GRETNA:
Nebraska Crossing
14333 South Highway 31
IN OMAHA:
Old Market
1114 Howard Street
MUZE location
Miracle Hills
666 North 114th Street
MUZE location
Orchard Plaza
2457 South 132nd Street
MUZE location
Plaza North
5403 North 90th Street
Millard
13830 "T" Plaza
IN BELLEVUE:
Bellevue
1015 Galvin Road South
IN IOWA:
Council Bluffs
1730 Madison Avenue
MUZE location