What makes this film work is what made "The Year My Voice Broke" work - realism. Nothing is overdone, and everyone acts and reacts only up to a certain line, never crossing it for fear of falling into the Pit of William Shatner Overacting.

The screenplay -also written by Duigan — is impressive as well, moving along naturally and effort-lessly, improving the film further. "Flirting" will be shown at the Mary Reipma Ross Film Theater, 12th and R streets, on Sunday only. Admission is $3 for UNL students with ID, and $5 for everyone else.

Looking for five people who have a dream and like to travel. Leave name and number and best time to reach for phone interview. 913-495-1622
