Husker record goes to 4-2 after weekend tournament

From Staff Reports

Mel Motley's three-run home run in the seventh inning gave Nebraska a 6-5 win over 14th-ranked Oklahoma State Sunday in the Arthur Gallagher Tournament.

The win over the Cowboys improved the Cornhuskers' record to 4-2, with a 3-2 record in the tournament.

Junior Alvie Shepherd picked up his second save, but he had to work out of a jam in the top of the ninth inning.

With runners on first and third, Shepherd forced Oklahoma State to hit into a double play to win the game.

In their opening game Friday, the Huskers dropped an 8-4 decision to New Mexico State. With Nebraska up 3-1, the Aggies exploded for seven runs in the top of the fifth inning to seal the win.

Later that day, Nebraska rebounded with a 10-2 win over Southern Utah. Nebraska junior right-hander Craig Sanders went the whole way, allowing just four hits and striking out seven for the win. Freshman first baseman Todd Sears hit his first career home run in a four-run fourth inning.

On Saturday, the Huskers split two games with San Diego State. The Huskers won the first game 6-5 when Sears hit a game-winning home run in the seventh inning.

Husker softball still undefeated

From Staff Reports

Last year, the Nebraska softball team started off the season with a loss against Oklahoma in the first game of the season.

After eight games this year, the Cornhuskers are still undefeated and off to their best start ever.

The Huskers swept two games from Creighton Saturday in Omaha.

In the first game, junior Stacie Stafford picked up her fifth win of the season in a 6-4 win. Freshman shortstop Ali Viola went 2 for 3 with a double and a home run.

Freshman Angela Blackwood lifted her record to 3-0 with a 5-0 shutout in the second game. She allowed just four hits. The shutout was Blackwood's second of the season.

Freshman Jenny Smith pounded a three-run home run in Nebraska's four-run sixth inning.

The Huskers will try to continue their winning streak at the Roadrunner Tournament in Las Cruces, N.M. The tournament will go from Thursday to Sunday.

Swimmers win, lose team titles

From Staff Reports

The reign is over.

The Nebraska men's swimming team's 15-year monopoly on the Big Eight Championships ended with a third-place finish this weekend.

The Cornhuskers finished behind Iowa State and Kansas.

The women's swimming team, however, took home its second consecutive title. The Huskers won six out of seven events and finished second in the other.

Nebraska's Penny Heyns, who is the nation's top-ranked 100- and 200-breaststroker, was named as one of the three Big Eight outstanding performers for the season.

Regular season ends with win

From Staff Reports

The Nebraska women's basketball team finished the regular season Sunday with a 62-51 victory at Iowa State.

The Cornhuskers, 13-13 and 4-10 in the Big Eight, were led by Anna DeForge, who scored a team-high 15 points.

Nebraska led the last-place Cyclones 35-16 at halftime before Iowa State outscored Nebraska 35-27 in the second half.

The Huskers will play Oklahoma in the first round of the Big Eight Tournament at Salina, Kan., Saturday.
