

CPR
can keep your love alive

American Heart Association
Fighting Heart Disease and Stroke

WOMEN WANTED

The United States Marine Corps is looking for college Junior and Senior Women who expect to graduate between December 1995 and December 1996 to train for and become Marine Officers upon graduation from college.

This Program is called the Platoon Leaders Class (PLC), and it guarantees:

- Starting Salary in excess of $25,000!
- No interruption of your academic career. All training takes place during one 10 week summer session at Officer's Candidate School in Quantico, VA.
- No special classes, uniform requirements, or drills during the school year.
- Approximately $2,700 pay for the 10 week summer training period.
- Financial Assistance during the school year.
- Freedom to disenroll, WITHOUT OBLIGATION, after completing the summer training session up until you are commissioned.
- A challenging career in a wide range of specialties that will put you well on your way to your professional goals.

For more information about the PLC program call the Marine Corps Officer Selection Office at:

1-800-524-2129

Marines
The Few. The Proud. The Marines.

Nelson called best bet for filling Exxon's seat

OMAHA (AP)—The political courtship of Gov. Ben Nelson continues to heat up as key Democratic leaders whisper sweet words of senatorial victory in his ear.

Nelson remains the party's best chance for keeping the seat being vacated by Democratic Sen. Jim Exxon in 1996, U.S. Sen. Bob Kerrey said Saturday during the Democratic Party's annual Jefferson-Jackson Day Dinner.

"I'm encouraging several people to consider running, but he would be the strongest candidate," said Kerrey, who heads the Democratic Senate campaign committee.

Nelson said he was leaning against entering the race. "I haven't set a time frame for a decision," Nelson said. "I know it can't go on indefinitely."

Nelson had no decision or announcement following a meeting Sunday with Kerrey.

At a reception before Saturday's dinner, Nelson also found himself being wooed by Senate Minority Leader Tom Daschle, who outlined the reasons why Nelson should run.

Nelson and Daschle said their conversation centered on the important role that a moderate

Democrat like Nelson could play in forming a bipartisan approach to the nation's problems.

Daschle was the keynote speaker at the Democratic dinner, taking aim at the Republican's Contract with America and referring to the GOP's $187 billion tax cut proposal as "deja-voodoo economics."

The tax cut will benefit the rich with more than 50 percent of it going to 12 percent of the country's wealthiest Americans, Daschle said.

He vowed to fight the proposal, which has passed the U.S. House.

Daschle credited Republican leaders, particularly House Majority Leader Newt Gingrich, with grabbing the public's interest through the powers of communication.

"Democrats haven't taken advantage of the opportunity to inform the people. In order to be competitive, we have to understand the power of communication and its complexity," Daschle said.

Daschle said there had been several issues, such as unfunded mandates and regulatory reform, where Democrats and Republicans had worked together during the first 100 days.

Correction

■ The Legislature has 32 days left in its 90-day session. A story in the Friday edition of the Daily Nebraskan said it had 14 left.

Gaza Strip bombings kill Israeli soldiers

KFAR DAROM, Gaza Strip (AP)—Islamic militants opposed to the Israeli-PLO peace process killed six Israeli soldiers and wounded dozens of people in two suicide bombings Sunday near isolated Jewish settlements in the Gaza Strip.

Israeli Prime Minister Yitzhak Rabin said he would continue talks with the Palestine Liberation Organization despite calls by right-wing opponents and some of his allies to halt them in protest.

In the first attack, a van parked by the main Gaza highway exploded near an Israeli bus at about noon, killing six soldiers, said Brig. Gen. Doron Almog, Israel's commander in Gaza. Officials said 34 people were wounded.

Two hours later, about six miles up the road, a Palestinian car drove into an Israeli convoy of military and civilian cars and exploded, Almog said. Eleven Israelis were wounded, including two girls ages 2 and 4 and two soldiers who were in critical condition.

Daily Nebraskan

Editor Jeff Zeleny, 472-1766
 Managing Editor Jeff Robb
 Assoc. News Editors DeDra Janssen
Doug Kouma
Dan Shattil
 General Manager Katherine Policky
 Production Manager Amy Struthers
 Advertising Manager Sheri Krajewski
 Asst. Advertising Manager Tim Hedegaard, 436-9258
 Publications Board Chairman Don Walton, 473-7301
 Professional Adviser Don Walton, 473-7301
 FAX NUMBER 472-1761

The Daily Nebraskan (USPS 144-080) is published by the UNL Publications Board, Nebraska Union 34, 1400 R St., Lincoln, NE 68588-0448, Monday through Friday during the academic year; weekly during summer sessions.

Readers are encouraged to submit story ideas and comments to the Daily Nebraskan by phoning 472-1763 between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m. Monday through Friday. The public also has access to the Publications Board. For information, contact Tim Hedegaard, 436-9258.

Subscription price is $50 for one year.
 Postmaster: Send address changes to the Daily Nebraskan, Nebraska Union 34, 1400 R St., Lincoln, NE 68588-0448. Second-class postage paid at Lincoln, NE.
ALL MATERIAL COPYRIGHT 1995 DAILY NEBRASKAN

It's One Of The Most Useful Credit Cards On The Planet. Unless You've Stolen It. Your MasterCard® is stolen. You panic, get angry, panic some more. Then you call and cancel it. Now the thief is in possession of, oh, about seven cents worth of stolen plastic. (Maybe he can use it as a coaster when he entertains at the hideout.) So relax. You only have to pay for stuff you bought, and you can get a new card the next day.* It'll be accepted at millions of places, one of which must sell wallets. MasterCard. It's more than a credit card. It's smart money.™

*Certain conditions apply.
 ©1995 MasterCard International Incorporated