Husker defense prevails again

By Derek Samson
Senior Reporter

For the second straight major scrimmage, the defense owned the offense.

The Nebraska offense could manage only three touchdowns in the 124-play scrimmage at Memorial Stadium Saturday. And only one of those touchdowns came from the first-team offense.

On the first drive, the offense, led by both Tommie Frazier and Brook Berringer, took the ball 65 yards, and Damon Benning capped the drive off with a 1-yard touchdown run.

But that was pretty much the end of the offensive threat.

Coach Tom Osborne said he was more concerned with the effort than the scoring.

"The effort was good, and the execution was a little better than Wednesday," Osborne said. "The hitting was pretty good. The defense played very hard, but the offense was a little sporadic."

Osborne said he was glad to see the competition level as high as it was Saturday.

"They were hitting pretty hard," Osborne said. "They're all competing for jobs. When you've got enough depth that there is competition, nobody can afford to sit back.

"Even with some of the key players returning — Frazier's got his hands full, and I don't think Lawrence Phillips has anything locked up — they're all competing for jobs. They've got to play hard."

I-back Brian Knuckles and quarterback Matt Turman did not scrimmage because of injuries.

Osborne said Turman, who hurt his knee last week in practice, will try to practice Monday. If Turman still has trouble, Osborne said, he will probably have his it scoped.

Huskies triumph over CSU Saturday

By Tony West
Staff Reporter

The Nebraska track and field teams were able to withstand the cold weather to sweep the competition at the Ed Weir Track on Saturday.

The men took top honors in a field of four teams by defeating second-place Colorado State 64-30. The Cornhusker women outscored Colorado State 111.5-64.5 to gain the team title.

Even though both teams won by sizable margins, Coach Gary Pepin said he thought performances could have been even better if it had been warmer.

"The weather really hurt," he said. "It's hard to get into the atmosphere of the meet when you're just struggling to stay warm."

But some Husker athletes didn't have much of a problem.

Former Nebraska football tight end Eric Alford, who joined the track team last week, finished second in the long jump with a leap of 23 feet, 10 1/4 inches.

Husker junior Zane Mai won the long jump competition with a mark of 24-2 1/2.

On the women's side, junior Kathy Travis Mueller won both the 100-meter and 200-meter runs with times of 11.86 and 24.4.

Senior Theresa Stelling had a personal best in the 800-meter run with a time of 2:16.63 to finish fourth. She also won the 1,500-meter run in a time of 4:29.15.

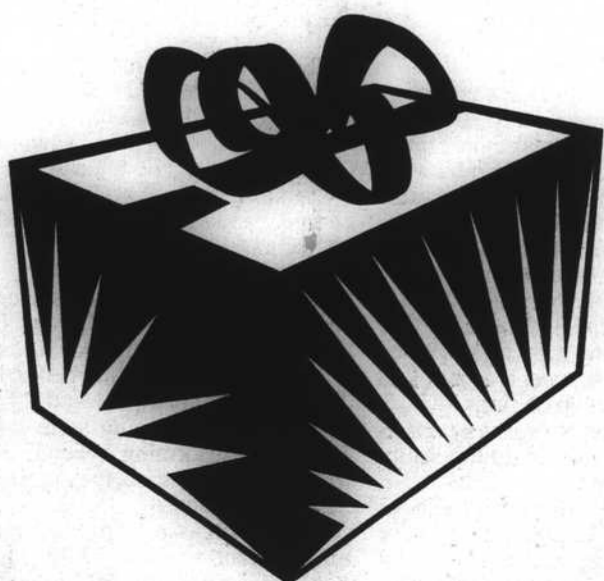

But Pepin said this meet was not about putting up the best marks.

Pepin said the level of competition wasn't as high as it could have been, and some people were held out of some events to give them a rest.

"I think a meet like this ... you have to just look at each individual on the team and hope to see some individual improvement," Pepin said.
