

The Allman Brothers Band coming to Pinewood Bowl

From Staff Reports

The fourth installment of the Pinewood Bowl concerts will come alive Friday, July 14 at 7:00 p.m., when the Allman Brothers Band take to the stage with their hearty combination of blues and rock-n-roll, with special guests Rusted Root, a Pittsburgh-born band that also mixes blues and rock.

The Allman Brothers Band has been together for over 25 years, and were just inducted into the Rock & Roll Hall of Fame in January of 1994.

In early May of this year, "2nd Set" was released. This album has not only some of the best Allman Brothers Band music, but also live versions of some of their other tunes such as "Sailin' Cross The Devil's Sea" and "No One To Run With."

Tickets for this concert are on sale now for $22.50 at all Ticketmaster outlets. Pinewood Bowl parking areas open at 4:30 p.m., and Pinewood Bowl itself opens at 5:30 p.m.

Former NU baseball star reassigned to Drillers

By Tony West
Staff Reporter

Former Nebraska baseball standout Marc Sagmoen seemed to be on the right track to play in the Major League.

But on June 23, the 5-foot-11 left fielder from Seattle, Wash. found himself making a detour when he was reassigned to the Tulsa Drillers, the AA team for the Texas Rangers.

In his two seasons at Nebraska, Sagmoen was a First-Team All-American and All-Big Eight selection. He also set single-season and career batting average records with .454 and .451, respectively.

Sagmoen was drafted by the Rangers in the 10th round of the Major League Baseball draft in 1993.

He then played one year with the Rangers A team before bypassing AA and going straight to the AAA Oklahoma City 89ers, where he played this season until June 23.

Sagmoen was batting .223 with 25 RBIs in 56 games with the 89ers before the reassignment.

And in nine games with the Drillers, he is now batting .281 in 32 at bats as of Monday.

Sagmoen was unable to be reached because the Drillers are in a six-game series in Jackson, Miss., which last through Sunday.

"He has played hard and he has played well, and that's about all you can ask."

But Brian Carroll, the director of public relations for the Drillers, said Sagmoen's entrance with the team has been nothing but positive.

"He has been a spark plug for us," Carroll said. "He seems to have made a good adjustment."

However, Carroll said he didn't think Sagmoen would stay with the Drillers for an extended length of time.

"As much as anything, the organization just wanted to let him get his confidence back since he was starting to drop off with Oklahoma City," he said.

As long as Sagmoen keeps playing ball the way he knows how, he could get on the right track again, Carroll said.

"He has played hard and he has played well," he said. "And that's about all you can ask."
