

UES

Clockwise from far left:

The UNL campus provides colorful settings for children on their outings from the Downtown Infant/Toddler Child Care Center, 1100 N St.

An arrangement of homegrown vegetables won first place at the Lancaster County Fair this past week.

Danny Parrott prepares to slam a ball over the net at the Cather Pound tennis courts, 17th & R streets. Parrott was playing tennis with co-workers from Lazlo's Friday morning.

Shoppers browse through sale items on July 28 outside Nebraska Bookstore, 1300 Q St., while a homeless man sleeps on a nearby city bench.

Washing windows inside the air-conditioned NBC Center, 1248 O St., July 28, provides a welcome relief from the stifling heat and humidity for Jason Christenson. Christenson is employed at Roy's Window Service.

On Saturday, Ron Koch of Pleasant Dale relaxes on the shore of Conestoga Lake.

Alexander Effing plays in the water Saturday at Conestoga Lake.

At the Lancaster County Fair, Evan Brunkow, 9 (left) and his brother Kyle, 12, of Firth show one of their prize animals.