

Annie

Mrs. Kelly's song. The effect was a nice touch.

The Lincoln Community Playhouse has excellent sets. The scenes in "Annie Warbucks" looked all the more authentic thanks to the skills of designer Ahna K. Packard.

Fans of the cartoon "Scooby Doo" will love the play's climactic ending. Enough said.

"Annie Warbucks" continues Thursday through Sunday and Sept. 21-24 at the Lincoln Community Playhouse, 2500 S. 56 St. Ticket prices and curtain times vary, and more information is available from the box office at 489-7529.

Dogmen

dedicated with a touch of smart aleck. He is a smart dog with an outgoing personality. Zip steals hearts every second he is on and is one of the best aspects of the movie.

Tab Murphy, who both wrote and directed "Last of the Dogmen," also has a knack for knowing when a breathtaking shot of the wilderness fits in. The film was shot in Canada and Mexico, with simply tranquil scenery.

In addition, the music matches the mood of the film — majestic and romantic, and maybe a little sad. Everything flows together so smoothly, the music simply imbues the movie with a sense of dignity.

A solid script, excellent acting, beautiful cinematography and majestic music form a film that should not miss Oscar's watchful eye.

"Last of the Dogmen" is a story about things close to the heart, dreams and hopes, finding peace and the beauty of the world. It is one of the best movies of the year, and one anyone who loves drama should not miss.
