But someone with his reputation would have an effect."

A Lincoln Police Department anonymous source echoed the county attorney's statements.

"Most of the police department considers the athletic department a pain in the neck," the police source told Sports Illustrated. "...The athletic department feels we persecute their players. To a certain extent they may be right because there is the feeling they create problems for us rather than solve them."

"The athletic department thinks they are cooperating with police when they have the athlete turn himself in. But they've already talked to him, and by the time we're able to interview the kid, he's not talking, not saying anything."

The story details other Huskers who have been arrested:

- Riley Washington, who awaits trial on an attempted second-degree murder charge.

- Tyrone Williams, who was charged with two felony counts in connection with a January 1994 shooting. He has not yet been tried.

- Reggie Baul, who pleaded guilty to one count of receiving stolen property, was fined $100 and placed on six months probation.

- Christian Peter, who was sentenced to 18 months probation in May 1994 after he pleaded no contest to a third-degree sexual assault charge brought by Natalie Kuijvenhoven.

Kuijvenhoven, a former Miss Nebraska and 1994 UNL graduate, told Sports Illustrated that Osborne requested she come into his office so she and Peter "could settle their differences."

"It's clear that Osborne was trying to intimidate me in order to get rid of me before a trial would ever happen," she told the magazine.

Osborne is quoted heavily in the story defending his national championship program.

"A lot of these fellows don't have families you can point to. Lawrence

"I don't tell Tom Osborne how to run the football department, and he should stay out of the criminal justice system."

has a mother and father but has very little contact with them. It's the same with Tyrone Williams. People say we should get rid of them," Osborne said in the magazine story. "I say you work with them. ...If Lawrence is in a structured program, he's more apt to get treatment than if we cut him loose."

Joe Nigro, a Lancaster County public defender, said Osborne would believe anything his players say.

"Osborne and his Christian values are very, very strong," Nigro told Sports Illustrated. "These kids get into trouble, he cares for them a lot, wants to take care of them and he tends to believe anything these kids tell him."

"The problem with Phillips is that it happened at Scott Frost's apartment and Scott talked to him before Lawrence talked to him. He has to believe someone."

The magazine story closes by asking the questions: "What does it say when missing practice and misdemeanors are equally criminal? What does it say when misdemeanors and felonies have to be included in the guidelines?"

Few players are quoted in the story. However, Baul, a split-end, said the Nebraska program has the same problems that other schools have.

"Just because a few guys have made a few mistakes doesn't mean our program isn't clean," Baul told Sports Illustrated. "It's not like we're the point where we have killers and convicts in the huddle."

Deadline is Approaching to Enroll in Student Accident Illness Insurance

If you wish to enroll in the student insurance program offered by UNL, you must do so by September 21, 1995!!!

Brochures and enrollment applications are available at the University Health Center, student information areas at the Student Union, or by calling 472-7435.

International students were automatically billed on tuition statements for the fall premium of $207.00. Spring/summer premium will be billed on spring tuition statements. If you have private insurance and wish to have the UNL insurance removed from your tuition bill, you need to show proof of your coverage and sign a waiver at the Health Center business office.

ATTENTION STUDENTS: Macintosh computers are now on sale.

(Okay, now go back to whatever you were doing.)

We think your life would be vastly improved if you possessed this knowledge: Macintosh computers are now available for less than the already affordable student prices. What's more, with the Apple Computer Loan and 90-Day Deferred Payment Plan¹, you can take home a Mac without having to make a single payment for 3 months. Just think, if you had a computer, you'd get your homework done faster. Then you'd have plenty of time for the more important things in life. Anyway, we're sorry to disturb you. Macintosh. The power to be your best. Apple ¹Hey, you wouldn't give your money to just anyone. Neither can we. Offers expire October 13, 1995. No payment of principal or interest will be required for 90 days. Interest accruing during this 90-day period will be added to the principal and will bear interest which will be included in the repayment schedule. The monthly payment quoted above is an estimate based on a total loan amount of $1,444.68, which includes a sample purchase price of $1,358 for the Performa 636 CD system shown above. The total loan amount also includes a 6.0% loan origination fee. Interest is variable based on the Commercial Paper Rate plus a spread of 6.35%. For example, the month of August 1995 had an interest rate of 12.21% with an annual percentage rate (APR) of 13.99%. Monthly payment for the total loan amount described above would be $25. Monthly payment and APR shown assumes no deferral of principal and does not include state or local sales tax. Monthly payments may vary depending on actual computer system prices, total loan amounts, state and local sales taxes, and a change in the monthly variable interest rate. Prerequisite: expedites the loan process, but does not guarantee final loan approval. Subsequent acceptable verification documents must be received before your loan is approved. ©1995 Apple Computer, Inc. All rights reserved.
