De Niro faces assault charges

NEW YORK (AP) — Robert De Niro faces charges of being a raging bully. Joseph Ligier contends the star of "Raging Bull" gave him a bloody nose outside a downtown club early Saturday when he refused to turn over some video he was shooting of the actor.

De Niro surrendered to police after the encounter and was fingerprinted, booked and released on the misdemeanor.

"He punched me in the nose and grabbed me by my hair," Ligier told the Daily News. "He had me bent over a car. He kept saying, 'Give me the video.' I said, 'No way.' I had footage of Julia Roberts on the same tape."

Finally, Ligier said, "He let go and threw the camera's eyepiece and filter at me."

De Niro spokesman Stan Rosenfield said Ligier was part of a new breed of "video paparazzi" who provoke celebrities into scenes, then sell the footage.

Ligier said he had a deal to sell the tape to "Hard Copy," but a spokesman for the program, Gary Rosen, said Ligier wasn't on assignment for the show.

"We haven't seen the Robert De Niro footage and no deal has been made at this time," Rosen said.

'Seven' is number one

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The thriller "Seven" held onto first place at the nation's weekend box office, spoiling the debut of Sylvester Stallone's "Assassins," according to industry figures released Monday.

The Brad Pitt-Morgan Freeman film took in $10.4 million in its third weekend as the nation's favorite film.

"Assassins" made only $9.4 million, the third-straight Stallone film to generate mediocre business.

"Dead Presidents" made a good $7.9 million while playing in less than half the theaters as "Assassins." "To Die For" was popular in its first weekend of wide release, finishing fourth.

"How to Make an American Quilt" was not impressive in its first weekend, finishing fifth with $5.8 million.

"Devil in a Blue Dress," "Halloween: The Curse of Michael Myers" and "Steal Big, Steal Little" slipped badly in their second weekends.

*Hey, you wouldn't give your money away to just anyone, would you? Neither can we. Deferred Apple Computer Loan and special pricing offers expire October 13, 1995. No payment of principal or interest will be required for 90 days. Interest accruing during this 90-day period will be added to the principal and will bear interest which will be included in the repayment schedule. The monthly payment quoted above is an estimate based on a total loan amount of $2,126.60, which includes a sample purchase price of $1,999 for the Power Macintosh 7200/75 CD system shown above. The total loan amount also includes a 6.0% loan origination fee. Interest is variable based on the Commercial Paper Rate plus a spread of 6.35%. For example, the month of August 1995 had an interest rate of 12.21% with an annual percentage rate (APR) of 13.99%. Monthly payment for the total loan amount described above would be $37. Monthly payment and APR shown assumes no deferral of principal and does not include state or local sales tax. Monthly payments may vary depending on actual computer system prices, total loan amounts, state and local sales taxes, and a change in the monthly variable interest rate. Prequalification expedites the loan process, but does not guarantee final loan approval. Subsequent acceptable verification documents must be received before your loan is approved.
