

Linebacker Hardin overcomes nerves in first start

By Trevor Parks
Senior Reporter

Luther Hardin's first start at Nebraska was delayed until only six minutes and 10 seconds remained in the first quarter Saturday.

Hardin, who was starting for the injured Jared Tomich at left rush end, had to stand on the sideline and watch as the Nebraska offense stormed to a 14-0 lead over Iowa State.

The 6-foot-2, 235-pound senior said he didn't mind the offense putting points on the board.

"It was kind of hard because we had to get the kinks out again on the sideline," Hardin said. "I was so nervous at the beginning because I just didn't want to make a mistake on that first play."

Tomich was listed as doubtful most of the week, and Hardin said he was told Thursday that he would start in Tomich's place.

Hardin said he didn't make any mistakes Saturday, and he felt that his play helped the defense.

In his first start, Hardin racked up three tackles, including one unassisted. That tackle was a sack of Iowa State quarterback Todd Bandhauer in the third quarter. It didn't count as a sack, however, because Bandhauer was ruled as down at the line of scrimmage.

Overall this season, Hardin has eight tackles — one of those was for a loss of 8 yards. Hardin also returned a tipped shovel pass in the Kansas State game for a touchdown. Right rush end Chad Kelsay deflected the Matt Miller toss, and Hardin took it 3 yards for the score.

The O'Fallon, Ill., native said it was great to get a chance to quiet Iowa State sophomore running back Troy Davis' words that he could win the Heisman Trophy with a good performance against the Cornhuskers.

"He's a good running back, but as a defense we took it as a slap in the face that he was a sophomore saying that he was going to win the Heisman on us," Hardin said.

"We definitely wanted to shut him down because he was getting a big head, maybe because he's young, I don't know.

"But that's disrespectful, and we really didn't go for that too much."

The Husker defense held Davis to 121 yards on 28 carries, his third lowest yardage total of the season.

"I was so nervous at the beginning because I just didn't want to make a mistake on that first play."

After improving to 9-0 with only two regular-season games remaining, Hardin said the defense was playing at a high level.

"The defense right now has a solid nucleus," Hardin said. "Everyone knows the plays, and we know how people will react and where everyone should be."

The Huskers eventually won the game 15-11 when Johnson and Allison Weston blocked Jen Briggs' shot.

Notre Dame coach Debbie Brown said the second game was tough to lose, but that Nebraska was just the better team.

"It's tough to lose in front of a crowd like this 15-1 and bounce back and play pretty competitively," Brown said. "I never felt like we had an insurmountable lead."

For the match, Nebraska held the Irish to a .140 hitting percentage. Notre Dame hit only .050 in the third game.

In the third game, the Huskers struggled as well, hitting only .190. But with the game tied at five, Nebraska reeled off 10 of the game's final 11 points. A Winsett block of Treadwell gave the Huskers a 6-5 lead they would never give up.

Four Notre Dame errors contributed as Nebraska built a 14-6 lead, and the Huskers won the match on a service ace by Reitsma.

Reitsma said beating two top 13 teams had helped the confidence of the team.

"It tells us we are playing pretty well," Reitsma said. "We're still on the right road anyway."

the season Nov. 24 in the Big Island Invitational against Toledo.

Nee said Nebraska — which missed the NCAA Tournament for the first time in five years last season — was eager to play.

Other than Lue, the Huskers have only one true freshman on their roster, Venson Hamilton, a 6-9 center from Forest City, N.C. Hamilton, who attended national high school powerhouse Oak Hill Academy in Virginia last season, has been this fall's biggest surprise, Nee said.

"I could honestly see him starting by later in the season," Nee said. "He has shown a lot, and with Chris Sallee eligible for only one semester, Venson is going to have an opportunity to play quite a bit."

NOTE:

Today is the first day of the fall signing period, which runs until Nov. 15. Cookie Belcher, a 6-3 guard from Mexico, Mo., is expected to sign a letter of intent with Nebraska today. Another 6-3 guard, Ryan Bailey, the brother of UCLA star Toby Bailey, is considering signing with Nebraska. Bailey, who attends Hargrave Military Academy in Chatham, Va., will decide this weekend between Nebraska and Maryland, his coach said earlier this week. Bailey will sign next Monday.
