

HOMER'S has the SOUNDS of URBAN AMERICA

Joan Armatrading
What's Inside

What's Inside brings us a happier and more upbeat side of Joan Armatrading. Assembling her usual cast of excellent musicians and crisp production, Joan shows some trademark emotion on thirteen new songs.

Brooklyn Funk Essentials
Cool and Steady and Easy

Brooklyn Funk Essentials take their ethos from the Big Apple's rich and vibrant musical past and fuse it with an unwavering street sensibility. The result: an extraordinary and exciting merging of a host of musical styles, all rooted in rhythms and spirit, and all Cool and Steady and Easy.

Eazy-E
Eternal E

Eric "Eazy-E" Wright will long be remembered as one of hip-hop's most influential figures. A must-have for any fan of rap, this collection contains his best work from N.W.A. and a solo career that take you back to the partying braggadocio and raucous playfulness of Eazy-E's youth—elements that were just becoming part of his adult expression. A portion of the proceeds will be donated to pediatric AIDS foundations.

Al Green
Your Hearts' In Good Hands

Called the "quintessential soul man," Al Green's highly distinctive vocal style has not only assured him a place in contemporary history, but inspired a whole generation of young singers as well. An eight-time Grammy winner and inductee into the Rock & Roll Hall of Fame, Al has been thrilling audiences with his emotive blend of gospel and R&B for close to three decades now. As his new album shows, he's sounding better than ever.

Groove Theory
Groove Theory

Mellow grooves with phat beats. Sade meets loose ends, hip-hop marries light acid jazz... This is the sound of Groove Theory. Amel's breezy voice and Bryce's keys and production makes this CD twice as nice.

COLUMBIA

Jimi Hendrix
In From The Storm

Music of Jimi Hendrix—In From The Storm performed by today's legends Sting, John McLaughlin, Brian May, Stanley Clarke, Carlos Santana, and Steve Vai.

Intro
New Life

R&B vocal trio Intro follow up their gold debut with an album that further explores the group's flair for brilliant lead vocals, warm harmonies and dynamic hip-hop influenced style.

Jodeci
The Show, The After Party, The Hotel

The Show, The After Party, The Hotel takes the listener from one happening location to another, complete with ambient sounds and dialogue connecting the hits.

MCA

Kwanzaa Music
Celebration of Black Culture

Here, at last, is an album for the African-American cultural holiday of Kwanzaa, celebrated by millions nation-wide and around the world. The artists in this joyful anthology include household names such as Aretha Franklin and James Brown, cult figures such as Clifton Chenier and Thomas Mapfumo, as well as musical gems from Haiti, the Bahamas and black Peru.

GOSPEL HIP HOP JAZZ RAP R&B SOUL

$11.88
CD

$8.88
CS

PRICES EFFECTIVE THRU:
DECEMBER 28TH, 1995

Brian McKnight
I Remember You

Following up his critically triumphant and near platinum self-titled debut album, Brian McKnight continues to romance the listener with his new album, I Remember You.

parade

Najee
Plays Songs From The Key of Life

If a great album is the result of the union of great ideas and great musicianship then it is a more-than-fitting description for Najee Plays Songs From The Key of Life, Najee's sixth and most ambitious album of music.

parade

Pure Soul
Pure Soul

Echoing the golden era of soul, these ladies deliver layered, textured sounds on songs like their debut hit ballad, "We Must Be In Love." The tracks are reminiscent of groups like the Emotions and The Jones Girls, mixing elements of gospel, jazz and blues into their R&B sound.

1

Solo
Solo

The group Solo debuts New Classic Soul on the first release. The incredible vocals delivered by this group can be attributed directly to genetics—with Sam Cooke and The Drifters as family members, how could they go wrong?

G

HOMER'S

Since 1971

Ask about our NO RISK Christmas guarantee!
Sign up for your FREE MusiCard™
at any Homer's location!

IN LINCOLN:

- Downtown 17th
1637 "P" St.
- Downtown 14th
1339 "O" St.
- East
6105 "O" St.
- Van Dorn
2711 S. 48th St.

IN OMAHA:

- Old Market
1114 Howard St.
- Miracle Hills
666 N. 114th St.
- Orchard Plaza
2457 S. 132nd St.

IN BELLEVUE:

- Bellevue
1015 Galvin Road St.

IN COUNCIL BLUFFS:

- Council Bluffs
1730 Madison Ave.