Portland State hands Huskers a Classic loss

From Staff Reports

The Nebraska baseball team fell to 4-12 after a 6-4 loss to Portland State on Monday morning in the first game of the Pepsi/Johnny Quik Classic in Fresno, Calif.

Junior Steve Fish, who pitched the first five innings for the Huskers, took the loss, which dropped his record to 2-3. Although he allowed three earned runs, Fish lowered his earned run average to 7.16.

Portland State, which improved its record to 5-14, took a 4-2 lead in the top of the fifth inning because of an error by third baseman Larry Hartzell and a wild pitch by Fish. Both unearned runs proved to be the difference in the game after a ninth-inning Husker rally came up two runs short.

Nebraska will play St. John's at 4 p.m. today.

NU to tackle Nittany Lions in 2002-03

From Staff Reports

The contracts have been signed for a two-game, home-and-home series between the Nebraska football team and Penn State.

The Nittany Lions will play host to the Cornhuskers on Sept. 14, 2002, and Penn State will travel to Lincoln the next season. Penn State leads the series 6-5.

Nebraska also is scheduled to play Washington (1997-98), Iowa (1999-2000) and Notre Dame (2000-01).

NU hurdlers eager for outdoor season

By Andrew Strnad
 Staff Reporter

INDIANAPOLIS — The old saying that two's company and three's a crowd often proves to be true.

Hibler

At the NCAA Indoor Track Championships last weekend at the RCA Dome, it was no different.

The Nebraska men's track team, which finished second to national champion George Mason, sent three athletes to compete in the 55-meter hurdles. Unfortunately for the Cornhuskers, one of the three was crowded out of the top eight.

Darius Pemberton of Houston won the event with a time of 7.14 seconds. Leading the way for the Huskers was senior Frank Mensah, who finished fourth in the event with a time of 7.25. Willie Hibler placed fifth, and Charles Reid did not qualify for the finals.

Mensah, who transferred to Nebraska from South Carolina in January, quickly got into form this year by finishing second behind Hibler at the Big Eight Championships last month in Lincoln.

"I kept improving throughout the year," Mensah said. "Earlier this year, I was kind of worried that I wasn't going to flow by the end of the indoor season."

Mensah, now a three-time All-American, said he was looking forward to the outdoor season. His chances of winning a national title are better on the outdoor track, he said.

"I'm satisfied with this finish," Mensah said, "but I can't wait for outdoors. That's where I'm at my best."

lis was Hibler, the conference champion, whose time of 7.29 seconds was good for fifth place in the finals.

Hibler, like Mensah, said he was happy with his finish, but he said he was looking forward to the outdoor season with growing anticipation.

"It's always good to be able to place at nationals," said Hibler, a senior from Cleveland. "I didn't have a good start, and in the 55 meters, there is no room for little mistakes."

Reid's time of 7.33 seconds in the semifinals was just short of the qualifying mark. According to Hibler, Reid, who is also a transfer from South Carolina, was disappointed that he couldn't join his teammates in the finals.

But Hibler said Reid probably would be the best outdoor hurdler on the team.

Mensah agreed, saying that Reid and the rest of the Huskers would be back during the outdoor season. He said he thought all would place at the NCAA Outdoor Championships, May 29-June 1 in Eugene, Ore.

"We've got three of the best here at Nebraska," Mensah said, "and I think you're going to see that during the outdoor season."

Sprints and hurdles coach Billy Maxwell said he was proud of his athletes, and like Mensah, Maxwell likes their chances even more in the outdoor season.

"Any time you get two hurdlers in the top eight, you know they're doing a good job," Maxwell said. "But when they go outside, they'll be a lot better."

Morris

For Morris, this season has been full of ups and downs. He began the year wrestling at 142 pounds when probable starter Mike Eierman was kicked off the team. But Eierman returned to the team and took over the starting role.

But Eierman was then ruled ineligible by the Big Eight, and Morris was back in the lineup at 142. Another freshman, Jake Roe, beat Morris for the starting spot in a wrestle-off competition, but Morris earned the spot back right before the Big Eight Championships.
