Music Reviews

His last effort, "14 Shots to The Dome," was not his finest hour, to say the least.

But just like a modulating sine wave, LL has come back to the top. "Mr. Smith" might be called a kinder, gentler LL, with fluid production from Easy Mo Bee.

Contrasting with "Hey Lover," the sugar-filled duet with Boyz II Men, LL always includes the hard-hitting track to squash all beef.

Read the line of "I Can't Live Without My Radio," "I'm Bad," "Droppin' Em," "Mama Said Knock You Out" and now, "I Shot Ya."

Two versions of the song appear. Not so surprisingly, the remix is the better version, with a little help from Keith Murray, Mobb Deep's Prodigy and Fat Joe.

Fans of the LL Cool J of 10 years past will not find any flashbacks, but what you will get is the new LL who is right on track. B-Boy ... Mack ... LL Cool J.

—Greg Schick
