

Feature

House raising:

A group of Southern Baptists are doing their neighborly best and helping out a Lincoln congregation build a new holy house. The work is hard and the hours are long. The volunteers say this is their vacation. Page 6

Campus

Tough talk:

The administration talks a mean game about toughening rules at UNL, but the average student will never know the difference. Page 3

Journey man:

David Loope, a UNL geology professor, is leaving for a five-week research trip to the Gobi Desert in Mongolia. He says it's a dream come true. Page 4

Race relations:

Julius Lester talks about Jewish and African-American relations, a not-so-peaceful history. Page 10

Community

Money matters:

The Democratic National Committee filed a complaint with the Federal Election Commission, naming the Nebraska GOP in it. Nebraska Republicans say they did no wrong. A watch group says complaints are common. Page 4

Party time:

A third political party has made its way on the Nebraska ballot. But history is stacked against them. Page 10

Athletics

Identity crisis:

Professional sports arenas are changing their names to reflect corporate sponsors. Page 9
