Oops:

A brief in last week's DN Summer Edition reported student football tickets did not sell out last season, and that there were 2,000 more tickets sold than from last year. The statistics are two years old, so numbers quoted are from the 1993-1994 football season, not last season.

A student's story

Statistics show rape and sexual assault may affect as many as one in every four college-aged women. Students at the University of Nebraska-Lincoln are no exception. Page 6

Also in this week's issue:
Cut the fat

A new fitness program offered by campus recreation allows busy people to work-out when they have the time. Page 3

The future

Both NU Volleyball Coach Terry Pettit and Football Coach Tom Osborne said they expect good things from their respective teams' this year. Page 4

Bottoms up

Thirty-seven Lincoln bars banded together to stop giving free birthday drinks starting today. The response? Cheers! Page 4

Help for the helpless

There are several places a rape victim can turn after they've been attacked...all they need to know is where to look. Page 5
