

Couple makes death pact; bodies found in wheat field

CHAPPELL (AP) — A death pact apparently led to the homicide-suicide deaths of a Wyoming couple, police said Tuesday.

The bodies of a 16-year-old girl and a 20-year-old man were found Monday afternoon near Chappell when a farmer reported an abandoned car in a wheat stubble field. Both had been shot in the head with a .25-caliber pistol, Deuel County Chief Deputy Sheriff Mark McFarland said.

A note addressed to a friend indicated the two had been dating and decided that one of them would take the other's life, then commit suicide, McFarland said. The bodies were found in the front seat of the locked car.

The names of the couple were not immediately released pending notification of relatives. The girl was from Laramie and the man's hometown was not immediately known.

All-terrain vehicle kills boy

ALBION (AP) — A nine-year-old rural Albion boy died Monday following an accident on an all-terrain vehicle.

Bryan Bentjen was riding his family's all-terrain vehicle in an alfalfa field when the accident occurred, according to the Boone County Attorney's office.

He died at the Boone County Health Center from head injuries and internal bleeding. He was not wearing a helmet.

The boy was in the third grade at Albion Public Schools.
