ostriches. The song, which is still a good tune, is perfectly in step with "August." With strong piano and moody guitar, it is highly reminiscent of "Raining In Baltimore."

"Have You Seen Me Lately?" proves, however, that Duritz isn't stuck with the label of being downtrodden forever.

"I was out on the radio starting to change," he sings. "Somewhere out in America it's starting to rain/Could you tell me the things/You remember about me/And have you seen me lately?"

After three years, we have seen you again, Mr. Duritz. We're glad you're back.

womb," she wrote. "Tap-dancing, I think. Waving its tiny arms around and trying to suck its thumb. I could have sworn I heard it laughing."

Once she was pregnant, the woman who has mass-marketed herself through incarnations as actress, pop diva, vamp and "boy-toy," suddenly became a recluse.

She was rarely photographed while pregnant and was reported to be scaling down her lifestyle this summer. After putting her Hollywood Hills mansion on the market she moved into a smaller, $2.7 million home in the Los Feliz district, the Los Angeles Times reported.

For years she has said she wanted a child. Her mother died when she was a young girl, leaving her, she said, with "a longing, a feeling of emptiness."

She met Leon, an amateur bicycle racer, while running in Manhattan's Central Park in 1994. Two months later, Madonna was having Thanksgiving dinner with Carlos' relatives in Miami Beach.

"Even then she talked about babies," Carlos' brother, Armando, told People magazine.

Havel earns reward for suggesting Love play the wife of Flynt

PRAGUE, Czech Republic (AP)—Vaclav Havel: playwright, philosopher, president ... casting director?

The Czech president earned his reward for advice he gave to director Milos Forman when Forman gave Havel a sneak preview Tuesday of his new movie, "The People vs. Larry Flynt."

Havel suggested rock diva Courtney Love should play the wife of Flynt, the Hustler magazine publisher.

The Czech-born Forman, who won Oscars for "One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest" and "Amadeus," arrived in Prague on Monday, accompanied by Flynt, Love, Woody Harrelson—who plays Flynt—and supporting player Donna Hanover Giuliani, wife of New York City Mayor Rudolph Giuliani.

cerpted in the November issue of Vanity Fair magazine, says Menem got a peek at her bra strap and then couldn't keep his eyes off her when they met in February as she visited during filming of "Evita."

Not quite, the 66-year-old Menem said.

"I didn't feel fascinated or attracted by her. ... She isn't that special," he said Tuesday.

Menem has had doubts about Madonna before. He said she was "totally unsuitable" to portray legendary first lady Eva Peron, but had a change of heart after meeting her and allowed "Evita" director Alan Parker to film some scenes on the famed Government House balcony.

Sinead O' Connor will be at concert, Trocaire will not go

DUBLIN, Ireland (AP)—If Sinead O'Connor's in, the Roman Catholics are out.

Trocaire, a Catholic relief group, withdrew from a fund-raising concert in Dublin next month because it will feature the Irish singer known for her bitter criticism of the church.

"We were not aware she was going to be asked to take part in the concert, but ... when we found out, we had to pull out," a spokesman who requested anonymity said Tuesday.

Trocaire objected when O'Connor ripped up a picture of Pope John Paul II on the TV show "Saturday Night Live" four years ago. She has also criticized Catholic teachings on child-rearing, abortion and the Jews.

"This is nothing personal against Sinead O'Connor," the spokesman said.

The Nov. 10 concert will mark the first anniversary of the execution of Nigerian writer and civil rights activist Ken Saro-Wiwa.

Ryder took punches from school bullies because of boyish look

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—The age of innocence was short-lived for Winona Ryder, who learned about bullies and prejudice when she was a little woman.

The actress says she came a fowl of schoolyard toughs when she was 12 because she looked a little too boyish.

"I was beat up pretty badly on the third day of school because three guys thought I was a gay boy. I got six stitches in my head, was slammed into a locker, got a fractured rib," Ryder told The Tennessean newspaper in an interview published Tuesday.

"I insisted I was a girl. I had really short hair and stuff, and so they beat me up," said Ryder, who is promoting her upcoming movie "The Crucible."
