

Dole blasts Clinton in final campaign move

With three weeks until the election, the GOP challenger takes a more negative tone.

SAN DIEGO (AP) — Bob Dole delivered a blistering attack on President Clinton's character Tuesday, accusing him of presiding over one of the most unethical administrations in the nation's history.

"No administration has been more self-righteous," Dole said in a luncheon speech that was designed to be a preview of a tougher debate stance at Wednesday's final presidential debate.

"But few administrations have been more self-serving," he said. "No administration has shown more arrogance. But few have displayed more ethical failures."

Dole cited "an integrity gap" in the Clinton administration "between the low standards they have adopted and the high honor that they hold. A gap between their swagger and their public scandals."

Dole acknowledged polls showing him to be trailing Clinton, with just three weeks to go to the election.

"If the polls are to be believed, some voters seem ready to support Bill Clinton, even though they believe he is unethical," Dole said.

The assault represents a decision urged on Dole by his senior advisers for some time, to go negative in a last-ditch bid to gain some movement in a race in which Dole has been trailing Clinton by double-digit margins since March.

Dole had seemed ambivalent about taking such a route, even to the point where he has been asking audiences over the past few days whether they thought he should be tougher on Clinton in Wednesday's debate.

But the former Senate majority leader appeared Tuesday to be pulling no punches.

"We have seen more than 30 Clinton officials investigated, fired, or forced to resign due to ethical improprieties," said the GOP challenger. "We have seen four independent counsels at work, three investigating members of the Cabinet, and one looking at the president himself."

In his remarks, Dole rattled off a catalogue of alleged ethical lapses by the administration, beginning with the 1993 firing of White House Travel Office veterans to the current dispute over links to Asian businessmen and their contributions to Democrats.

He also cited Clinton's Whitewater dealings and the gathering of hundreds of sensitive FBI files by White House staffers.

"We cannot say that we want integrity in public life and then reward its absence," he said.

Dole arrived in California on Monday to prep for Wednesday's debate and campaign for the state's 54 electoral votes.

Dole campaign officials, buoyed by polls showing Clinton's lead down to about 10 points here, say they have decided to pour additional resources into the state in a high-risk strategy that could result in less time being spent in other battleground states.

Clinton, in New Mexico for his own debate preparation, shrugged off such Republican attacks. "It's election time," Clinton said.

Court orders retrial of former Nazi officer

ROME (AP) — Italy's highest court today ordered the retrial of a former Nazi officer who was acquitted of acting with premeditation and cruelty in the World War II slaying of 335 civilians.

The Court of Cassation accepted a challenge by lawyers for relatives of the victims that the judge in the military trial was biased in favor of 83-year-old Erich Priebke.

On Aug. 1, a military court convicted the 83-year-old Priebke of involvement in the 1944 massacre in Nazi-occupied Rome, but it acquitted him of acting with premeditation and cruelty. Prosecutors needed a conviction on those charges to get around Italy's 30-year statute of limitation on murder.

Priebke was immediately re-arrested after the verdict following an extradition request from Germany. He remains jailed in Rome.
