

Pederson leaves NU for Pittsburgh

sports in your community, you can look at it two ways," Pederson said. "One is that you have a lot of fans. Pittsburgh is a sports fan town, so that is the positive side of it.

"The other side of it is that you have to get them to come to your games, too."

He inherits a football program that is 2-6 this year and has had only one winning season since 1990 playing in the Big East Conference. The Panther men's basketball program has also struggled recently, winning only 20 games over the last two seasons.

"Pittsburgh is a unique situation in that it is one of the few urban campuses in America," Pederson said. "Pittsburgh is a city that loves athletics and loves sports. I just felt like the situation was right to come here and ignite the enthusiasm of the fans."

"I felt I was ready to be an athletic director."

Hessler rescues CU again

Neuheisel said. "He's got a confidence that's really special."

With 3 minutes, 10 seconds remaining Saturday, Hessler capped off an impressive 16-play, 90-yard drive with 1 yard to seal the victory over UT.

"They don't miss a beat on offense," said Missouri Coach Larry Smith, whose Tigers play host to CU Saturday. "The only difference we see is that Hessler has a tendency to keep it on the option. Detmer pitches it more often."

Neuheisel said he'll make a decision on the starting quarterback later this week, but Hessler will get most of the snaps in practice.

"I've told him all along that it's important to practice like a first-stringer even if you're not a first-stringer," Neuheisel said.
