The Republican candidate says he'll bring integrity to the presidency.

ALAMOGORDO, N.M. (AP) — Fighting a raspy voice on his final six-state campaign dash, Bob Dole urged voters Monday to choose him over four more years of "arrogant" government under President Clinton.

Standing in bright sunshine with mountains and a space museum's vintage rockets for a backdrop, Dole told several hundred people, "I know a little about service and I know a little about sacrifice."

"I've never seen a more arrogant group than the one that occupies the White House right now. They don't believe the rules apply to them," he said.

As he crisscrossed states and four time zones, Dole contended that the Clinton White House would face increasing legal entanglements that could hurt the country in a second term.

"If you want a full-time president who won't be going to hearings or trials or anything else, Bob Dole is your choice," he said. "I will bring integrity back to the White House."

Earlier Monday, Dole flew from Lafayette, La.; Knoxville, Tenn.; and Sacramento, Calif., to Phoenix, where he visited a diner to sip some hot tea — "Thank you, I'm a little hoarse," he said — and told about 500 people gathered outside in the chilly pre-dawn air that one poll even showed the race close to a dead heat.

"If that poll is accurate, if it's tied today, we'll win tomorrow," Dole said. Dole was next headed to Houston; Lafayette, La.; Knoxville, Tenn.; and Des Moines, Iowa. Some are GOP strongholds Dole hopes to shore up, while others have important congressional races.

He will wind up early today in Independence, Mo., to visit former President Harry Truman's statue and then travel to his hometown of Russell, Kan., to vote and hold his campaign finale.

Perry: Pilots were targeted

WASHINGTON (AP) — The pilots of two U.S. F-16s who fired high-speed missiles at Iraqi radar sites in separate incidents over the past three days had every indication they were being targeted by Iraqi missiles, Defense Secretary William Perry said today.

"These incidents did occur. In both cases, the F-16 warning gear alerted that they were being tracked by a surface-to-air missile system and ... they launched a HARM missile, a radiation-seeking missile, toward the source of that radiation," Perry said.

The Iraqi Foreign Ministry said the incidents were fabricated by the Clinton administration "to divert the attention of American voters from their domestic scandals by creating false problems abroad."

Since no evidence has been found that Iraq actually launched any missiles, Perry said an intense investigation is underway.

He said he did not know whether faulty equipment might be involved or whether the Iraqis were playing cat-and-mouse games with their radar systems.

Milosevic heads to Serbian win with wife's help

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia (AP) — Serbia's ruling couple — President Slobodan Milosevic and his influential wife — were heading for a landslide victory Monday over a united democratic opposition in national elections.

A win for the coalition of Milosevic's governing Socialists and his wife's neo-Communists would seal his decade-long grip on Serb-led Yugoslavia, which he propelled into and out of war.

With 50 percent of the vote counted, Milosevic's Socialists and his wife Mirjana Markovic's Communists were leading with 48 percent. The four-party opposition alliance Zajedno had 24 percent, and the ultranationalist Serbian Radicals were third with 19 percent, according to the state electoral commission.

The opposition noted the incumbents control every lever of power, including election officials, and said the balloting was plagued by irregularities, but Milosevic spokesman Ivica Dacic rejected their claims.

"The opposition is looking for an alibi for its electoral loss," he said.

Some 7.5 million voters in Serbia and Montenegro, the two republics which remain a part of Yugoslavia, chose representatives for the lower, 138-seat federal Parliament, municipal authorities and members of Montenegro's legislature Sunday. Turnout was about 64 percent.
