A look at crime on campus and in the community

ROBBERY

A man robbed a bank Saturday by telling the cashier he was wired with dynamite.

The suspect walked into Union Bank and Trust, 1300 N. 48th St., at 12:19 p.m. Saturday, Lincoln police Sgt. Ann Heermann said.

He told the cashier to give him cash because he had a bomb with him, Heermann said.

He left the bank on foot with a "sizeable" amount of cash, Heermann said. He was described as 5 feet, 10 inches tall, weighing about 175 pounds and wearing a green-hooded sweat shirt with a mask over his face.

The Federal Deposit Insurance Corp. prohibits bank employees from talking to the media about robberies.

BURGLARY

Lincoln police arrested a 14-year-old boy they caught breaking into an auto repair shop and attempting to steal a customer's car.

Sometime between 4:20 a.m. and 5:20 a.m. Sunday, a witness reported seeing a boy trying to hot-wire a Jeep at Wilhelm Auto Repair, 1342 High St., Heermann said.

He had apparently broken a window to the shop and snatched keys to 12 vehicles, Heermann said.

He was still trying to start the Jeep when police arrived, Heermann said.

Police suspect the boy was involved in two auto thefts from Wilhelm Auto Repair last week in which a Honda CRX and a Mercury Capri were stolen. The burglar in that case also broke into the shop and took the keys.

Police are looking for an additional suspect in the case.

BURGLARY

A suspect slashed into the inflated domes of the Woods Tennis Complex Saturday night and stole cash from the office.

The canvas walls were cut enough for the suspect to slip into the complex at 401 S. 33rd St.

Between 9:15 p.m. Saturday and 5:30 a.m. Sunday, the burglar rummaged through cabinets and drawers in the complex office and took $519 in cash.

Two men held in custody after trying to sell cocaine in Lexington

LEXINGTON (AP) — Two men accused of trying to sell cocaine and fleeing from police were in custody.

Police said a pound of cocaine estimated to be worth up to $14,000 was seized after the 31-year-old and 33-year-old men, both from Lexington, were seen making a drug deal Friday. Police said the men fled on foot, and one was arrested at the scene. The other hopped aboard a moving Union Pacific coal train headed west. Police stopped the train about 50 miles away near Maxwell and arrested the suspect.

Both men were being held Monday on suspicion of illegal drug distribution and obstructing police officers. The arrests took place after a lengthy investigation by the Dawson County Sheriff's office and the Nebraska State Patrol.

Two Clarks citizens win with write-in votes

CLARKS (AP) — Two unwitting candidates received enough write-in votes last Tuesday to take village board positions in this eastern Nebraska town.

Tim Bittinger said he was mulling over whether to accept. Tim Szatko said he will serve.

No candidates ran for the offices in the village of 450 people. Mayor Steve

Meyer said it was the first time he can remember that no one ran for the board.

Merrick County Clerk Gloria Broekemeier said Bittinger received 34 votes and Szatko had 28.

Bittinger, president of Clarks Telephone Co., said he had heard of an informal movement by Meyer to write him into office.

"I was not seeking it," Bittinger said. "I wouldn't let my wife write my name in."

Szatko said he hadn't considered running for the job until one woman asked him a week ago if she could put his name down.

Meyer said, "They should both be good board members."
