

Daily Nebraskan

Tuesday
November 26, 1996

VOL. 96

COVERING THE UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA-LINCOLN SINCE 1901

NO. 65

FOUR-YEAR-OLD ROSS REYNOLDS helps to sort out wheelbarrow support legs Saturday morning at the Home Builder's Association of Lincoln's toy building project at Lincoln High School. This was Reynolds' first trip to the toy building event.

Association donates toys to police drive

LPD officers will give homemade wheelbarrows and teddy bears to needy children for the holidays.

By CHAD LORENZ
Senior Reporter

Lincoln police took 60 teddy bears into custody Saturday afternoon.

The Home Builder's Association of Lincoln donated the bears and 60 homemade wooden wheelbarrows to the Santa Cop toy drive, HBAL Vice President Nadine Condello said.

Lincoln police will deliver the wheelbarrows and hundreds of other toys to needy children for the holidays.

One hundred members of the association, including carpenters, roofers and interior designers, built the toys for five hours at Lincoln High School's wood shop, she said.

"It just gives us a lot of enjoyment to spend a Saturday to work with other people excited about building toys for kids," Condello said.

"It's a lot more exciting than buying something at a store," she said. "They put their hearts into it."

Please see TOYS on page 6

Halls lose video games

Lack of interest, revenue led to end of contract

By KASEY KERBER
Senior Reporter

The UNL residence hall game rooms will open without arcade video games in the spring semester, a housing official said.

Michael Hager, assistant director of housing, said TC Entertainment decided not to renew its contract for the spring semester because of a lack of revenue from students.

Based in Lincoln, TC Entertainment is the official supplier of arcade video games to the University of Nebraska-Lincoln residence hall game rooms at Neihardt, Harper, Abel and Burr-Fedde halls.

As a result of the contract loss, employees at the game rooms may be

"We're really sensitive about finding other jobs for our students. There is no lack of openings for these students in other parts of the residence halls."

MICHAEL HAGER
assistant director of housing

moved to other jobs within the residence halls.

"We're really sensitive about finding other jobs for our students," Hager said. "There is no lack of openings for these students in other parts of the residence halls."

Hager said the contract loss was the result of a shift in student spending. Money that students once spent on ar-

Please see GAMES on 8

Buildings close, change hours for break

From Staff Reports

Most buildings at the University of Nebraska-Lincoln are closed or operating under different hours during Thanksgiving break.

The Nebraska Union will be open from 7 a.m. to 9 p.m. today; 7 a.m. to 6 p.m. Wednesday and will be closed Thursday. The union is open Friday from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. and will be closed all day Saturday and Sunday.

The Nebraska East Union will close at 5 p.m. Wednesday, and the restaurant will be open until 1 p.m. The bakery and bowling alley will not be open Wednesday. The union is closed Thursday through Sunday.

Besides Selleck and Cather Halls and the Piper section of the Neihardt Residence Center, which have vacation housing, all residence halls close Wednesday at 10 a.m. The last meal served at all residence halls, including Selleck and Cather, is lunch today. Food service will reopen Monday.

Love Library will close at 5 p.m. Wednesday, and will be closed Thursday. On Friday, the library will be open from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. with limited staff. Saturday hours are 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. and Sunday hours are noon to midnight.

The University Health Center will be open until 5 p.m. Wednesday, and is open from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. Thursday through Sunday.

The Campus Recreation Center is open regular hours Wednesday but will be closed Thursday. Friday through Sunday hours are 9 a.m. to 6 p.m.

The Nebraska Bookstore is closed Thursday and will be open from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. Friday, 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. Saturday and noon to 6 p.m. Sunday. Holiday hours are 9 a.m. to 8 p.m., beginning Monday.

All state offices are closed Thursday through Sunday. There will be no postal service on Thanksgiving.

Sun day

DANIEL J. LUEDERT/DN
MAGGIE DOCKERY, a sophomore art major, and Shandi Berts, a junior art major, relax between classes Monday in the Sheldon Sculpture Garden.