A look at crime on campus and in the community

ASSAULT

Lincoln police arrested a 36-year-old man Saturday night for allegedly attacking a 14-year-old boy at Gateway Mall.

Karl Eisbach of Lincoln was taken into custody and booked on suspicion of third-degree assault and disturbing the peace, Officer Chris Peterson said.

Eisbach told police that four boys were goofing around in one of the mall's courtesy wheelchairs and bumped into him twice, Peterson said. None of the boys was disabled.

Witnesses said Eisbach then threw one of the boys up against a wall in the commons area, near the food court, Peterson said.

A mall security officer and mall patron got between the boy and Eisbach, Peterson said. The boy pulled loose and all the boys ran from the area.

Eisbach then rushed to the other side of the mall and allegedly told a customer-service clerk to call mall management because three security officers had been shot, Peterson said. Eisbach later denied making the statement.

The clerk called 911 dispatch at 7:38 p.m., sending police and a rescue unit to the scene. No one was seriously hurt in the incident.
