

'Evita' stars shine in Alan Parker's film

The Facts

whenever he is on the screen. Overall, "Evita" is an incredible spectacle for the senses; although some music was rewritten or added specifically for the screen, it still has the magic of other Webber works ("The Phantom of the Opera," "Cats"), and the lyrics still have that wonderful weave that has made Tim Rice famous.

The level of reality brought by "Evita" is mind-boggling as well, considering the thousands of extras to be costumed and the political channels traveled to use the actual balcony from which Eva Peron spoke.

Even with the memory of films like "Shanghai Surprise" and "Body of Evidence" in mind, Madonna is excellent in the title role. She displays a great deal more versatility in this role than she has shown in her past works (though I still wish original choice

Film: "Evita"
Director: Alan Parker
Stars: Madonna, Antonio Banderas, Jonathan Pryce
Rating: PG (mature themes, smattering of harsh language)
Grade: A-
Five Words: If a woman were king ...

Michelle Pfeiffer had been available, but that's just me).

It is Banderas who steals the show. Although his role is limited to playing bartenders, waiters and so on, he displays an on-screen passion that brings back fond memories of his incredible work in "The Mambo Kings" and "Philadelphia."

It's more than two hours long, so hit the potty beforehand, because you don't want to take a chance on missing one second of "Evita."

Cool concerts, hot music lineup melt away blahs

Omaha's Grasshopper Takeover finishes out the month on Tuesday, Jan. 30.

Duggan's Pub, 440 S. 11th St., has live rock and blues music nightly. On Thursday, Decker plays, and on Friday the 18th, it's Blue House. On Jan. 23, blues musicians Champaign Jerry and the Vegetarians perform, and the Grateful Dudes follow suit on Jan. 24 and 25. The 30th will see Shithook, and the Rockin' Fossils will play on the 31st and Feb. 1.

The Ranch Bowl Entertainment Center, 1600 S. 72nd St., in Omaha, is another place to find live music. Some big draws include Goldfinger, Reel Big Fish and the Skeletons this Sunday and legendary blues recording artist Chris Duarte on Jan. 24.
