Police link teens to burglary

By MATTHEW WAITE
Senior Reporter

Five teen-agers were arrested Thursday in connection with a recent burglary of firearms from a local pawn shop.

Lincoln Police arrested 19-year-old John Nguyen, of 4101 S. 27th St., for the Jan. 10 burglary of 58 firearms from Acher Arms-Pawn, 1334 S. 33rd St. He also was cited for carrying a concealed weapon, possessing a stolen firearm and discharging a firearm within city limits.

On Wednesday morning, a neighbor in the area of 2627 R St. reported someone had fired a gun in a parking lot. The woman looked outside of her house and watched an Asian male fire a handgun in a westerly direction.

The woman reported hearing three shots fired, but only witnessed one. She did, however, give police a description of the man's car.

That's what unraveled the case,

Sgt. Ann Heermann said. She said based on the description of the car and the man who fired the gun, police believed they knew who it was.

Officers stopped the car near 21st and M streets at about 10 a.m. Thursday. When officers searched the car and the five people in it, they started making arrests.

All five in the car were arrested, including Nguyen, the car's owner. Also arrested were:

■ Deon Greenfield, 18, of 1500 S. Folsom St., who was arrested for possession of a stolen firearm and carrying a concealed weapon.

■ Vu Quoc Nguyen, 18, of 350 N. 28th St., who was arrested for possession of a stolen firearm, carrying a concealed firearm and discharging a firearm within the city limits.

■ Eric Rogers, 19, of 4527 N.W. 50th St., who was arrested for possession of a stolen firearm and carrying a concealed weapon.

Three of the guns in the car were stolen from Acher Arms-Pawn, Heermann said. Another passenger, a 16-year-old female who was not in possession of one of the stolen guns, was arrested for carrying a concealed weapon.

Police obtained a search warrant for Nguyen's home at 4101 S. 27th St., where they recovered 10 guns from Acher-Arms Pawn.

While officers were searching the house, a car pulled up and picked up two people who were staying at the house. Heermann said officers then pulled over that car at 27th and Stockwell streets around 3:30 p.m.

There, Son Linh Mai, 17, of 4101 S. 27th St., threw a gun out the window, apparently attempting to hide it from officers. He was arrested for possession of a stolen firearm — another of the Acher Arms-Pawn guns.

Including the 14 guns police recovered Thursday, the St. Louis Police Department reported finding one of the Acher Arms-Pawn guns there.

Heermann said officers were working on finding the remaining 43 guns.

East Union observes 20 years

By LINDSAY YOUNG
Staff Reporter

Emerging from a small area with just a deli and a lounge, the Nebraska East Union will celebrate the 20th anniversary of its much larger and more accessible building this week.

In 1947, nine years after the opening of the Nebraska Union in 1938, residents of East Campus received their first union facility in the basement of what is now the recreation center.

Daryl Swanson, Nebraska Unions director, said that after several years of constant tension, the East Campus residents were promised a union.

But because of increased enrollment on the City Campus, Nebraska Union was renovated and extended twice before the Nebraska East Union was built in 1977.

The Nebraska East Union features a six-lane bowling alley, a cafeteria used by Burr-Fedde residence hall residents, a bank, home economics classrooms and offices, a Student Involvement office, health center facilities and a catering service for both unions.

Ray Koziol, assistant director for opportunities in the Nebraska East Union, said the union's best feature was its architecture.

Rich Caruso, coordinator of campus programs, said events in the Nebraska East Union are always successful and attract a high number of students.

Events planned for the anniversary will take students back to the union's inaugural year with prices set at what they would have been in 1977.

Today, bowling will be featured at 50 cents a game with 25 cents for shoe rentals. Pool will be played at $1.20.

On Wednesday, free cake will be served outside the bakery. Whoever finds the one piece of cake with an edible prize will receive a free catered dinner for two in the Nebraska East Union. Other special food prices will be offered through the week.

There will also be a daily drawing for a free cafeteria lunch and a drawing on Friday for a four-person bowling party.
