SIDE LINES

Are you getting a little tired of wasting your Sunday afternoons on old movies and cartoons? Do you want a chance to show off your athletic prowess? Take advantage of the Intramural Indoor Track Meet on February 16. Contact the Campus Rec Center for more information . . . Help support our Women's Gymnastics Team as it reaches for new heights in 1997. The Lady Cornhuskers will compete against the nation's elite, including Arizona State, California, and Eastern Michigan, in the Masters Classic on February 23 at noon at Devaney. The event is one of Nebraska's most important meets of the year.

DOING IT...

College can be a wild ride—more literally for some than others. UNL senior Sara Ragatz is UNL Women's Rodeo Team captain and PR director.

Ragatz recently helped lead her team to a fourth place finish in a 20-team regional rodeo. In addition to heading Nebraska's rodeo program, Ragatz also is the Great Plains regional director in charge of 20 teams. She is one of 11 directors who will organize the Collegiate National Finals Rodeo later this year.

Ragatz grew up in Lancaster, Wisconsin, and chose the University of Nebraska because of its strong rodeo program and quality academics. She is a Horticulture/Landscape Design major.

In high school, Ragatz was a three-time event state champion and served as the national secretary for the High School Rodeo Program.
