

Orange you satisfied?

Florida's spring break popularity knows no bounds. If you're stopping in Tampa or St. Petersburg, stop at Busch Gardens or a Major League Baseball spring training camp. On the west coast, try the Daytona Motor Speedway or the nightlife of Miami. If you're somewhere in between, try Disney World or MGM Studios in Orlando.

New York

The BIG cities

Chicago and New York are in a class all their own. If the Big Apple's your thing, stop by the Empire State Building, the Met and Central Park. Grab a slice of pizza if you go to Chicago, swinging by the Museum of Natural History and the Sears Tower along the way.

Hey!

This little coastal town offers several good nightclubs, including The Headroom and Mother Fletcher's.

Myrtle Beach

Orlando

Nassau

Daytona Beach

Miami - Ft. Lauderdale

Montego Bay

Key West

Tampa - St. Petersburg

Panama City

New Orleans

Cancun

Party time

If you go to this 24-hour party zone, check out the French Quarter and Lafayette Cemetery.

Fun in the sun

Island resorts and beachfront hotels dot the coastlines of Mexico and the islands of the Caribbean. Go to the ruins of Mexico's ancient civilizations, or try cliff-diving, parasailing, boating, cantina-hopping or iguana-chasing at any of the islands. Jamaica, the Bahamas and the Virgin Islands offer refuge from the winter cold.

South Padre Island

Close to home

For the budget-minded, stop at Kansas City's Alameda Plaza before taking in a show at the Starlight Theater. Drive by St. Louis' Gateway Arch on your way to see the National Hockey League's Blues play.

Mazatlan

San Diego