sixth straight

From Staff Reports

The Nebraska wrestling team won its sixth straight dual beating Missouri 32-6 Wednesday night in Columbia, Mo.

The Cornhuskers, who moved up to eighth in the NWCA Top 25 earlier, lost only two matches in the victory. NU is now 14-4, while MU dropped to 7-5-2.

Todd Beckerman (118 pounds) started Nebraska off on the right track defeating Brooks Travis 9-7 in overtime. At 126 pounds, Jeramie Welder scored a technical fall beating Brian Harris 22-7. Brad Canoyer (134) won by default to give NU a 14-0 lead.

At 142, Ryan Bauer beat Clint Caton 7-5, and No. 11 Jason Kraft (158) won 14-5 in a major decision over Jared Sears.

NU swept the final three classes with wins by Charles McTorry (177), who beat Cory Hodapp 10-7, Scott Munson (190), who beat Kevin Stroth 8-4, and Tolly Thompson (Hwt.), who won 15-0 in a technical fall against Thomas Patterson.

outing.
"They're hitting that invisible wall," Nee said, "mentally and emotionally. They're tired of hearing me talk. They're fatigued, but they're going to have to regenerate."

"We need those guys contributing." At times this year, Mitchell, Florence and Belcher sparked. Mitchell scored 16 points against Cincinnati on Dec. 31, and he played 40 minutes in Tyronn Lue's absence the next day in a loss to Bowling Green.

Florence scored 17 points in a Dec. 6 win over Coppin State and recorded his first career double-double with 14 points and 12 rebounds last week against Colorado. Belcher, who leads the Big 12 in steals, averages 9.9 points and 30 minutes per game.

"I know that they are going to get through it," NU senior Mikki Moore said. "I know from when I was a freshman that it's a learning experience. Hopefully, it will kick in more sooner than later."

Belcher offers no excuse for the recent slide.

"Regardless of what happens," the true freshman guard said, "it's a team thing. We're just not playing well. We practice hard, but we don't execute in a game."

NU must execute tonight, Nee said, especially on the defensive side against Northern Iowa senior Jason Daisy.

"If he's at Kansas, everybody's talking about him," Nee said of the 6-3 guard, who averages 20.3 points per game and scored 36 in UNI's 109-104 win over Nebraska last season in Lincoln. "Absolutely, he's a pro player."

The Panthers, originally scheduled to play host to Nebraska on Dec. 14 in a game that was postponed because of Division I-AA football playoffs, improved to 13-8 with a 75-63 win over Evansville on Tuesday.
