

$5.00 Off All Months Pre-Paid
Any Size Garage 5x10 to 10x40

STRONG BOX SELF STORAGE

- COMPLETELY FENCED
- KEYPAD ENTRY
- ONSIGHT MANAGER
- SECURITY PATROLLED
- CLOSE TO CAMPUS
- WELL LIGHTED
- CAMERA MONITORS
- GREAT RATES

RESERVE TODAY CALL 476-9292
2861 West "O" St.
Bring in This Ad Or Student ID

1997

STUDENT FOOTBALL TICKETS

SPRING LOTTERY

April 14-18
8 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Applications available at 117 South Stadium,
Student Accounts--
110 Adm & East Campus
information desk.

ONLY FULL-TIME STUDENTS MAY APPLY DURING LOTTERY.
For more information call 472-3111.

N Huskers

Price
(6 home games):

Student: $87.50
Spouse: $175.00

bw-3 Grill & Pub

20 WINGS

Every TUESDAY

All Day!

The way wings were meant to be!

1328 P Street 475-hwww(2999)

Woods rolls in Masters

The Masters

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP) — Tiger Woods' eye-popping, head-shaking victory margin at the Masters is only the beginning for the 21-year-old phenom.

Woods shattered just about every record possible on his way to shooting a final-round score of 69 and winning his first green jacket at the Augusta National Golf Club.

And when the green jacket was draped over his shoulders, golf greeted not just the first black to win a major professional championship, but also a player of the talent, intelligence and discipline to achieve his goal of being the best to ever play the game.

Woods finished with an 18-under-par 270, the lowest score ever shot in the Masters and matching the most under par by anyone in a Grand Slam event.

Doetker wins high jump

From Staff Reports

NU freshman Kerry Doetker won the high jump, beating out her twin sister at the UTEP Track Invite on Saturday.

Doetker's jump of 6 feet narrowly beat her sister Jody's leap of 5-10. Both marks were season bests and qualified the two for the NCAA provisional.

Junior Tressa Thompson continued her dominance, winning the discus with an NCAA provisional qualifying mark of 167-7. Thompson also finished second in the shot put with a throw of 57-10½. Freshman Dahlia Ingram finished second in the triple

NU splits with Tech

From Staff Reports

The Nebraska softball team had to travel to Cedar Falls, Iowa, to pick up a split of a doubleheader against Texas Tech.

The Cornhuskers (16-16 overall and 3-3 in the Big 12 Conference) lost the first game 8-5, but rallied to win game two 5-2 behind two home runs and a complete-game pitching performance of Christie McCoy.

Tech (34-24-1 and 1-9) jumped out to a 3-0 lead in the top of the first, but NU came back to take a 5-3 lead. The Red Raiders added four runs in the top of the sixth for the win.

In game two, McCoy won her third game of the season and belted homers in the first and third innings, knocking in four runs. McCoy leads all NU batters with six home runs.

Aggies 2-hit NU

From Staff Reports

Three Texas A&M pitchers held the Nebraska baseball team to two hits in a 3-0 victory Sunday at Olsen Field in College Station, Texas.

The Aggie win completed a three-game sweep of the Cornhuskers. Texas A&M downed NU 7-5 on Friday, and won 5-2 on Saturday.

Nebraska, which fell to 18-22 overall and 4-11 in the Big 12, was held hitless by Texas A&M right-hander Chris Fulbright through five innings on Sunday. NU first baseman Todd Sears broke up the no-hit bid with a double in the sixth.

Fulbright, who improved to 2-1, walked three and struck out two before being relieved by John Sneed, who allowed one hit through 2 1/3 innings. Casay Fossum pitched the final 1 2/3 innings and earned his fifth save for the Aggies (30-15 and 13-8).

Husker left-hander Kenny Duebelbeis (3-2) took the loss for Nebraska after allowing three runs on five hits through 7 1/3 innings.

A two-out single in the fourth inning by catcher Matt Garrick scored left fielder Steven Truitt and gave Texas A&M a 1-0 lead. The Aggies added one run in the seventh and one in the eighth.

On Saturday, Aggie starter Matt Blank pitched a complete-game nine-hitter and held Nebraska to two runs while striking out five.

The Huskers, who have lost seven of their last 10 games, return to Lincoln to face Hastings College Tuesday at Buck Beltzer Field at 2:30 p.m.

Injuries hamper Husker scrimmage

INJURIES from page 7

Brown said, is one of the fastest he has ever seen.

"We have such speed at receiver," Brown said. "All three receiving positions — those guys can go. I think Scott Frost is going to have a real good year throwing the ball. I'm hoping to be in the 60-percent range in completion percentage."

Frost completed two passes in six attempts while rushing five times for 14 yards and a touchdown. Last season Frost completed 52 percent of his passes for 1,440 yards — the ninth highest season total in Nebraska history.

The Huskers lost their top two receivers from last season — senior split end Brendan Holbein and wingback Jon Vedral — but Brown said this year's squad should still have a solid passing game.

"I think the passing game has a chance to be very good," Brown said. "We're expecting it to be good."

Starting wingback Shevin Wiggins led the receivers on Saturday catching four passes for 75 yards. But the offense, Wiggins said, still needs work.

“There's no question that offensive football takes timing, more practice and more execution.”

TOM OSBORNE
NU football coach

"We have a lot of improving to do," Wiggins said, "but by the time fall comes around, I'll think we'll be ready. We made a little improvement today, but I think we have a long way to go."

Wiggins, a 5-foot-11, 190-pound junior from Palmetto, Fla., said he was glad the team was able to practice outside despite the snow. The AstroTurf in the Cook Pavilion is too "sharp," he said.

Osborne said he couldn't remember the last time that Lincoln received so much snow during spring drills.

"We've had a real strange weather pattern all week," Osborne said. "But there is nothing we can do about it."

Other injuries suffered in Saturday's scrimmage include: wingback Sean Wieting, bruised shoulder; tight end Dorrick Roy, injured ankle; fullback Joel Makovicka, sore shoulder; split end Kenny Cheatham, sore back.

All should be back in practice on Monday, Osborne said, except Wieting.

NU bounces back to beat Tigers

TENNIS from page 7

encourages them to give it their all."

One player who has been improving lately is Hart. After struggling earlier this year, Hart (12-8) has come back in a big way. The junior from Sunnyside, Wash., won both of her singles matches this weekend, including a victory over Baylor's top player McGrath.

Hart has also been a big force in doubles. She teamed with freshman Gina Pelazini at No. 2 doubles against Missouri. Jacobson said the teaming Pelazini up with Hart is a good fit because of how Hart carries herself on the court.

"She exudes confidence in others," Jacobson said. "When you are playing with someone who believes wholeheartedly in themselves, you start to believe and play at a higher level."

The weekend split put the Huskers right back where they were in the Big 12 conference race. At 4-5 in the league with two conference duals remaining before the Big 12 meet in two weeks, Jacobson said NU needs to pull things together beginning with a match at Kansas State on Tuesday.

Even though the Wildcats are 2-6 in the conference, Jacobson said he is expecting a catfight.

"They are better than their record," Jacobson said. "They are real strong one through four. We will need to have a great day when they step on the court."