A look at crime on campus and in the community

TERRORISTIC THREATS

A knife-wielding man slashed at his walls and refrigerator, apparently angry because someone stole his video camera.

Lincoln Police were called to 135 F St. early Saturday morning on a disturbance call. When they got there, the man's girlfriend said he became enraged when he couldn't find the camera.

The man kicked down his own apartment door and went in to get a butcher knife, Lincoln Police Sgt. Ann Heermann said. He then walked in the hall and down to another apartment, where he stabbed the door.

Heermann said the man claimed he was going to kill someone because of the missing camera. The man went back to his own apartment where he slashed the walls and the refrigerator.

Heermann said the man's girlfriend, who was in the apartment at the time with her 4-year-old daughter, told officers she was scared she was going to be hurt.

Officers booked 46-year-old Wesley Baldwin for making terroristic threats.

ARSON

It wasn't quite burning the house down, but it was close.

Police and fire units were called to a construction site on South 14th Street between Stockwell and Calvert streets at 10:23 p.m. Sunday on reports of flames coming from the site.

When emergency crews arrived, they found the outhouse engulfed in flames.

Heermann said there were no suspects, and investigators believe the fire may have been started by lighted toilet paper.

Damage was estimated at $1,500.

Man hospitalized after accident

By MATTHEW WAITE

A Lincoln man was in stable condition Monday after the car he was driving was hit head-on by a man driving a pickup the wrong way down a one-way street while having a diabetic reaction.

Tiet V. Huynh, 46, of 1207 Charleston St., was taken to Lincoln General Hospital for head wounds he received when his head smacked into his windshield. He was not wearing a seat belt.

The Lincoln Fire department was called to cut open the 1989 Honda Civic to free Huynh, who was reportedly trapped inside.

Emergency crews had most of the 400 block of South 13th Street blocked off while they cleaned up the accident.

Witnesses said they saw a white Chevrolet 4X4 pickup turn onto 13th Street and head northbound on the southbound one-way street.

PARAMEDICS CARRY AWAY Tiet Huynh after the car he was driving was struck head-on by a pickup Monday morning.

Lincoln Police Sgt. Ann Heermann swerve out of the way, but Brandt struck him driving 25 mph.

Brandt was not ticketed, Heermann said.
