Rodman book too raunchy for Oprah

CHICAGO (AP) — Oprah Winfrey is less than wild about the raunch in Dennis Rodman's latest book.

Basketball's bad boy was dropped from Winfrey's show because she objected to his obscenity and sex-filled "Walk on the Wild Side." A taping planned for last week was canceled.

"After reviewing Dennis Rodman's new book, we decided it would be inappropriate to promote it to our viewers," show officials said in a statement.

The book, Rodman's second, crossed the line of acceptability, a Winfrey spokesman said Tuesday.

The Chicago Bull wrote about his affair with a transsexual, said he dates mostly white women because black women ignored him before he became a star and plans to legally change his name to "Orgasm."

The book "isn't for everyone, but Rodman fans will love it," said Carole Baron, the president of publisher Dell.

'Volcano' sings snake flick but couldn't surpass 'Peak'

LOS ANGELES (AP) — "Volcano" bumped "Anaconda" from its No. 1 perch at the box office but failed to generate the heat of its earlier rival, "Dante's Peak."

The disaster film about a volcano erupting in Los Angeles had $14.7 million in ticket sales in its debut, according to industry estimates Sunday.

"Dante's Peak," about a volcano that destroys a small town, beat it to the screen by two months and took in $18.6 million, for the best February opening ever.

"Volcano," starring Tommy Lee Jones, got good reviews for its lava-filled special effects. But its opening take could have been fatter, said Tom Sherak, chairman of 20th Century Fox's Domestic Film Group.

"I think everybody really would have liked to have done more," he said, explaining that a film's opening is crucial because movies tend to lose audiences quickly these days.

"Everybody's building and building for that first weekend ... because you know you're going to have a huge falloff," he said.

"Romy and Michele's High School Reunion," starring Oscar-winner Mira Sorvino and Lisa Kudrow as two losers faking success at their 10-year reunion, debuted in second place with $7.6 million.

Top 10

The following films brought in the most box office receipts over this past weekend (Friday through Sunday, dollar amounts are in millions of dollars)

1. Volcano $14.7
2. Romy and Michele's High School Reunion $7.6
3. Anaconda $7.3
4. Liar, Liar $6.8
5. The Saint $5
6. Murder at 1600 $4.7
7. Grosse Pointe Blank $3
8. Scream $1.4
9. The Devil's Own $1.2
10. Chasing Amy $1.1
10. That Old Feeling $1.1

"The national NOW is in a mega-membership drive," she said. "We're giving away a free T-shirt designed by local artist Lil E. Ristrango with every new member sign-up."

In addition to free T-shirts, there will be a silent auction throughout the concert. Plenty of prizes will be given out, including gift certificates, posters, jewelry, socially conscious bumper stickers and buttons and other feminist art.

The goal for the evening is simply to have fun and reaffirm the values of NOW.

"It's a night for recharging feminism, as well as for recruiting," she said. "It's a night to connect with people you may only see once a year. And it gives us a chance to support businesses who support women's issues."

Eldonna Ray, Lincoln's NOW newsletter coordinator, said the event wasn't only about politics.

"We're basically trying to bring people together to have fun and hear great music."
