ONE COURSE THAT COULD CHANGE THE COURSE OF YOUR LIFE.

Look forward to the future with confidence. Enroll in Army ROTC, an elective that's different from any other college course. Army ROTC offers hands-on training. Training that gives you experience and helps build self-confidence, character and management skills. All the credentials employers look for.

ROTC is open to freshmen and sophomores without obligation and requires about four hours per week. It will put your life on a whole new course.

For more information contact Major Steve Sargent at (402) 472-4269.

High school, it isn't

The Daily Nebraskan's Summer Editor has some tips on surviving post-secondary transition syndrome. Page 3

Under construction

The not-so-sweet symphony of hammers and trucks is filling the campus air. Pages 4-6

Full house

UNL's residence halls will be above capacity for the first semester ... again. Page 7

Listen to your elders

Two Daily Nebraskan columnists have some advice for incoming freshmen. So listen up, ya little whippersnappers. Pages 8-9

Bargain hunting

Lincoln's thrift stores can provide an inexpensive shopping experience for financially challenged students. Plus, Features Editor Gerry Beltz offers some of his own treid-and-true advice for saving what little money you have left after buying books. Page 11

Time to sweat

Despite what some may think, football isn't the only sport UNL students care about. Maybe it's time to check the Rec. Page 12.

Grab your popcorn

Film buffs have many opportunities to pursue the moving pictures they love at local theaters and video stores. Page 14

What's the frequency?

Lincoln's radio stations offer something for nearly every music fan. Page 15

Minor problems

The eternal issue of what to do if you're under 21 is no stranger to Lincoln's populace. A few suggestions, perhaps? Page 16

Disc-y business

The search for music contained on small round plastic things can be a confusing one, but not if you know where to look. Page 19
