

Sanderford adds former USC assistant to staff

From Staff Reports

Paul Sanderford, who in June was named to succeed Angela Beck as Nebraska women's basketball coach, added another member to his coaching staff July 10 by hiring Brooke Meadows as an assistant coach.

Meadows has spent the last three years as an assistant at the University of Southern California. While at USC, she served as recruiting coordinator, monitored the academic progress of student-athletes, scouted opponents, assisted in game preparation and coordinated all areas of team and recruiting travel. During her three years there, the Women of Troy made two NCAA Tournament appearances.

"Brooke gives us the west coast connection we need at the University of Nebraska," Sanderford said. "She's been in the Pac 10, a good league, and has worked with quality players."

Her primary responsibilities will be coordinating academics for the Huskers, working with post players and recruiting on the west coast.

Before joining the staff at USC, Meadows was an assistant coach at Loyola Marymount. At LMU, her major responsibilities were coaching post players, implementing the pre-season and postseason strength programs and assisting with the condi-

Meadows attended college on a basketball scholarship at San Diego State University. She was named to the NWIT all-tournament team in 1989 after helping the Aztecs to a second-place finish. She earned a spot on the all-tournament team in the 1987 Big West Conference Tournament. Meadows was a member of the Dean's List and earned her degree in speech communications from SDSU in 1990. She has been pursuing a master's degree in administrative leadership at USC.

The 30-year-old Meadows played professional basketball with the Cents Basket in the Luxembourg Pro League.

She is originally from Boulder, Colo.

Former Ralston pitcher signs with Huskers

From Staff Reports

Nebraska head baseball coach John Sanders announced Tuesday that he had signed left-handed pitcher Brian Rodaway to join the Huskers next season.

Rodaway, 6-2, 170 pounds, was a first-team all-state selection as a senior at Ralston High School after compiling a 4-3 record with a 2.69 earned run average. As a junior, Rodaway was 5-3 with a 0.30 ERA, the lowest ERA in the state, and he earned second-team all-state honors.

"Brian is an outstanding athlete with a promising future," Sanders said. "We are happy to have him in our program."

Rodaway carried a 3.63 grade point average in high school and was academic all-state in both basketball and baseball. He earned varsity letters twice in baseball and once in basketball.

"From the beginning (of the recruitment), I wanted to stay in Lincoln," Rodaway said.

"Things worked out and I'm very happy to be part of the Nebraska program."

The Huskers had the inside track in his recruitment since both his high school coach, Stan Haaz, and his American Legion skipper, Kevin French, played baseball at Nebraska.

"I thought it was exciting to be around two coaches who had personal experiences of the Nebraska program," Rodaway said. "I was very fortunate to be able to share those experiences with my two coaches."

Rodaway was all-city, all-conference and all-Heartland during his career and was a two-time All-Star Legion selection. He led LHS to the state tournament in 1996, its first visit in 24 years.

SOME THINGS ARE MEANT TO BE CLOSED YOUR MIND ISN'T ONE OF THEM.

For decades, MDA has shown how valuable people with disabilities are to society. We believe talent, ability and desire are more important than strength of a person's muscles. The one barrier these people can't overcome is a closed mind. Keep yours open.
