

Weather causes woes

From Staff Reports

For the ninth and 10th consecutive times this season, weather caused the cancellation of Nebraska baseball games.

The Cornhuskers were scheduled to play a doubleheader today against Chicago State at Buck Beltzer Field. The games were canceled because snow remained on the field from a March 7 storm.

Nebraska returns to action Monday when the Huskers travel to Honolulu for the Rainbow Easter Baseball Tournament. NU opens the tournament against Lewis-Clark State at 3 p.m.

Golfers take title tourney

■ Jamie Rogers picks up his second win of the spring while Josh Madden adds a third-place finish to lead the Huskers to a win.

From Staff Reports

Jamie Rogers picked up his second win of the spring as the Nebraska men's golf team won the Cleveland Golf Collegiate Tuesday in Aiken, S.C.

The Cornhuskers put together rounds of 290, 292 and 295 to shoot an 877 led by Rogers and Josh Madden, who added a third-place finish.

Furman finished one stroke behind NU with rounds of 296, 293 and 289 for an 878. South Carolina-Aiken and Duke tied for third with 895s and Charleston rounded out the top five at 898.

Rogers, who also won the Huskers' first competition of the spring Feb. 23-24, shot rounds of 70, 75 and 70 to win the tournament with a two-over-par 215. Brian Scurlock of Furman shot rounds of 74, 70 and 72 to post a second-place 216.

Madden earned his second top-three finish of the season finishing third with rounds of 74, 71 and 72 for a 217.

"We knew what we were capable of," Madden said. "We just had to prove it. We need to show we have what it takes to win."

Steve Friesen also recorded a top-10 finish for Nebraska as he put rounds of 69, 73 and 78 together for a seventh-place 220. Scott Gutschewski finished 19th with a 225 and Peter Smith finished 43rd with a 234.

Though they managed to win the tournament, the Huskers struggled during the last day. NU led Furman by seven strokes before the final round.

"Overall, I think we've done extremely well," Rogers said. "The only thing we need to work on is finishing off the tournaments. When we've got them down, we've got to keep them down. We have to dominate that last day."

Nebraska returns to action March 28-29 at the Dr. Pepper Intercollegiate in Pottsboro, Texas.
