Chase ends in arrest

A man led police on a prolonged chase Thursday morning that started in Lincoln and continued onto Interstate 80.

Police stopped a car with two people near 27th and Superior streets at about 4 a.m. Thursday, Lincoln Police Capt. Doug Soukup said.

While police were talking to the driver outside the car, the passenger, Kenneth Hamilton, slid behind the wheel and took off.

Lincoln Police followed Hamilton, 19, all the way to I-80 where Lancaster County Sheriff officers picked up the chase.

Lancaster and Sarpy County deputies followed Hamilton through Waverly and Gretna with the help of a Nebraska State Patrol helicopter.

Sarpy County Deputies made the arrest in Gretna to end the chase.

DWIs issued on St. Pat's

Police efforts to crack down on drunken driving on St. Patrick's Day yielded 10 DWI arrests.

The 10th arrest for driving while intoxicated was made at 6 a.m. Wednesday morning, Lincoln Police Sgt. Ann Heermann said.

One officer made four arrests during his eight-hour shift, which is unusual because each arrest requires a couple of hours to process.

Garage thief at large

Someone broke into eight cars parked in a downtown parking garage Wednesday.

Windows were broken out in the eight cars parked on three different levels of the garage, Gunny's Ltd., Heermann said. The garage is at 13th and P streets.

The thief took car stereos and anything else in reach, totaling $1,700. The damage to the cars is estimated at $1,100.

Home burglarized

An unfinished home was burglarized Tuesday. Light fixtures and tools were taken from the garage.

The thief entered the house at 1645 Prairie Lane through an unlocked door and then forced his way into the locked garage, Heermann said.

Tools were valued at $920, and there was $20 damage to the house.
