OU'S DEREK WATHAN is pulled away from NU shortstop Bryan Schmidt after the two exchanged pushes during the second inning Sunday. Watham was ejected from the game after barrel-rolling into Schmidt as Schmidt applied a tag.

NU pounded out three homers in the inning, including a grand slam by third baseman Danny Kimura. Every Husker starter managed to score in the seventh except Harvey.

The Sooners answered in the top of the eighth and tied the game at 12-12 with a three-run homer by OU lead-off man Corey Hart. After Starkins' homer, NU closer Tevis Arnold came on in the ninth and recorded his seventh save of the season. The win went to senior Brian Zubor (1-0), and OU's Kyle Denny (0-2) took the loss.

"That was a strange game - a lot of changes in the weather and the lead," Arnold said. "Our guys did their job, and I was able to do mine too."

ing for the Rams, and hopefully we can make it a third."

Wistrom was joined in the first round by defensive tackle Jason Peter, who was drafted by Carolina with the 14th pick overall.

In the third round, former NU quarterback Scott Frost was selected by the New York Jets with the 67th pick. He is expected to change positions from quarterback to safety with the Jets, who were 8-8 last season and narrowly missed the playoffs.

Ahman Green was selected seven picks later by Seattle. The Seahawks, who Green said were high on him all along, plan to put Green behind probable starter Ricky Watters, who was picked up in the offseason.

Projected by some to be a first-round pick, Green said he was not disappointed by slipping to the third round.

"I'm not mad at all," Green said. "I just want to contribute wherever they want me to. Seattle's got a chance to be in the playoffs so I'm happy.

Nebraska offensive guard Aaron Taylor, selected in the seventh round, will join No. 1 pick Peyton Manning with the Indianapolis Colts.

"It's a little disappointing that I fell to the seventh round," Taylor said, "but I'm making money doing what I love, so I'm happy."

Eric Warfield also was selected in the seventh round by Kansas City.

"They're a very good team," Warfield said. "They only drafted one defensive back, so I'll get the chance to play if I come in prepared."

Green said the quality of the Nebraska players selected was high and he expects all of them to make an impact in the NFL.

"We're catching up with the Notre Dames and the Florida States," Green said. "The NFL is starting to realize that Nebraska's got great players."
