

The Urge to celebrate new CD at Ranch Bowl

Away" from "Flavor" begins, but the song is distinct because of the slow sung break before the energetic chorus. The first single off of "Master of Styles" is "Jump Right In," a reggae/hip-hop mix that features background vocals during the chorus by 311's Nick Hexum. Hexum wrote the chorus to the song and also appears in its video. Other songs include "S.L.O.B.," which is very similar to "Drunk Asshole," from "Flavor," in that it is a simple punk song. "Gene Machine" is a Bad Brains cover, and "Straight to Hell" is the song that probably transforms best into the live setting. In concert at the Ranch Bowl tonight, the crowd can expect several songs from "Master of Styles." "If I Were You," "Straight to Hell" and "Jump Right In" were just a few of the songs played at the band's March 14 show at Knickerbockers, 901 O St., that are probable for tonight's performance. The Urge also will play their usual songs from "Flavor" including "Violent Opposition," "Open All Night" and "Gettin' Hectic." Tickets for the all-ages show are $13.50. The show starts at 9 p.m.

Nonmusic majors add to band

So that makes programming a concert for a group like Campus Band more interesting, Chesnutt said. "We must make maximum use of our time so we can get more continuity out of our rehearsal time," Chesnutt said. "But (Campus Band) improved a lot from last year, and that is important." The Campus Band is playing Alfred Reed's "A Festival Prelude"; Vaclav Nehybel's "Festivo"; an arrangement of Giuseppe Verdi's "Ave Maria," conducted by graduate assistant Scott Zimmerman; "How the West Was Won," arranged by Robert Hawkins; Frank Ticheli's "Cajun Folk Songs"; and James Ployhar's "Hammerfest."

Kloecker said Zimmerman "has done very well." "He's been a good role model with the group, and I've been very pleased with his work as a conductor," he said. Zimmerman is in his second semester as a graduate assistant in percussion and Marching Band, but this is his first semester conducting Campus Band. "I'm pleased to have had the opportunity to work with the Campus Band," Zimmerman said. "It's a big change from the high school bands I've worked with." Having several conductors on the program could have caused any group to get whiplash, but Chesnutt said the Campus Band members seem to really enjoy working with all three conductors. Zimmerman is conducting

"Ave Maria," Chesnutt is conducting "A Festival Prelude" and "How the West Was Won," and Kloecker is conducting the rest. This has helped in the diversity of programming, Kloecker said. "What we've tried to do is to program real standards from the school band literature," Kloecker said. "The audience should really enjoy it because it's just pleasant music - nothing real heavy. It's a good ear break." Chesnutt concurred. "There are a wide variety of pieces on this program. Audiences should really enjoy and identify with this concert because it is very listener-accessible." The Campus Band concert is tonight at 8 in Kimball Recital Hall. Admission is free.
