

Seniors get free beer, barbecue at sendoff

From Staff Reports

Today more than 400 seniors will drink free beer on campus while talking to alumni and administrators.

And, because they will be at the Wick Alumni Center's annual Senior Sendoff, they won't get a single community service hour for doing it.

The event, open to all graduating seniors 21 or older, will feature music and dancing starting at 6 p.m. in the Wick garden with disc jockey Craig Estudillo, door prizes and graduation gifts.

A barbecue dinner with beer and soft drinks will be served from 6:30 p.m. to 7:30 p.m. to those who made dinner reservations earlier this month.

All eligible seniors are welcome after 7:30 p.m. About 326 seniors attended last year.

"It's fun," said Shelley Zaborowski, director of student programs for the University of Nebraska Alumni Association. "It's a great chance for seniors to have a good time and say goodbye to some of their friends."

Many also attend to meet alumni from their college and begin making alumni connections, Zaborowski said.

The casual event's food, drinks and dancing are complimentary.

But seniors must purchase a $15 new graduate alumni membership to be eligible for the door prizes, including $550 cash, a television, a cordless telephone and local restaurant gift certificates.

The event is sponsored by the University of Nebraska Student Alumni Association and supported by 10 college alumni boards.

Representatives from each college's alumni board and some colleges' administrations also will attend.

Cyclist hit by car

A cyclist is in critical condition Monday after being hit by a car on the Sun Valley Boulevard overpass Sunday night.

Robert J. Morrison was riding southbound along the shoulder when a car hit him from behind, police said.

The driver of the car told police she did not see Morrison as she came down the rail-overpass, Lincoln Police Sgt. Terry Sherrill said.

Morrison was taken to Lincoln General Hospital by ambulance from the scene just north of Westgate Boulevard shortly after 11 p.m.

The investigation into the cause of the accident is still in progress, but no one had been cited in connection with the accident as of Monday morning.

Robbery suspect at large

A man waited until the lobby cleared to rob a hotel Sunday night.

The man entered the lobby of the Inn 4 Less, 1140 W. Cornhusker Highway, and asked about a room for the night until the guests cleared the lobby, Sherrill said.

Then he threatened the clerk with his hand in his pocket and demanded money.

The man left on foot with an undisclosed amount of cash out the east lobby door.

Police were on the scene quickly, but an attempt to track the man with police dogs was unsuccessful.

The robber is described as white, 6 feet tall and 50-60 years old with a dark complexion and a thin build. He had collar-length gray hair and a mustache and was wearing a green camouflage coat, blue jeans and a dark hat.
