

"I really wanted to go to UCLA, but my mom told me there were too many earthquakes out there."

- NU long jumper Chris Wright, on why he came to Nebraska

"For the most part, people stayed with us. And these are good people who wanted to be here."

- NU Head Football Coach Frank Solich

"We are going to grind our asses because we have something to prove."

- NU Men's Gymnastics Coach Francis Allen, on focusing on the NCAA Championships individually despite not qualifying as a team

"Seeing how it's sunny outside, maybe we should go out and settle this whole thing right now."

- President Bill Clinton, on the Michigan and Nebraska football teams' visit to the White House to be recognized for winning the national championship

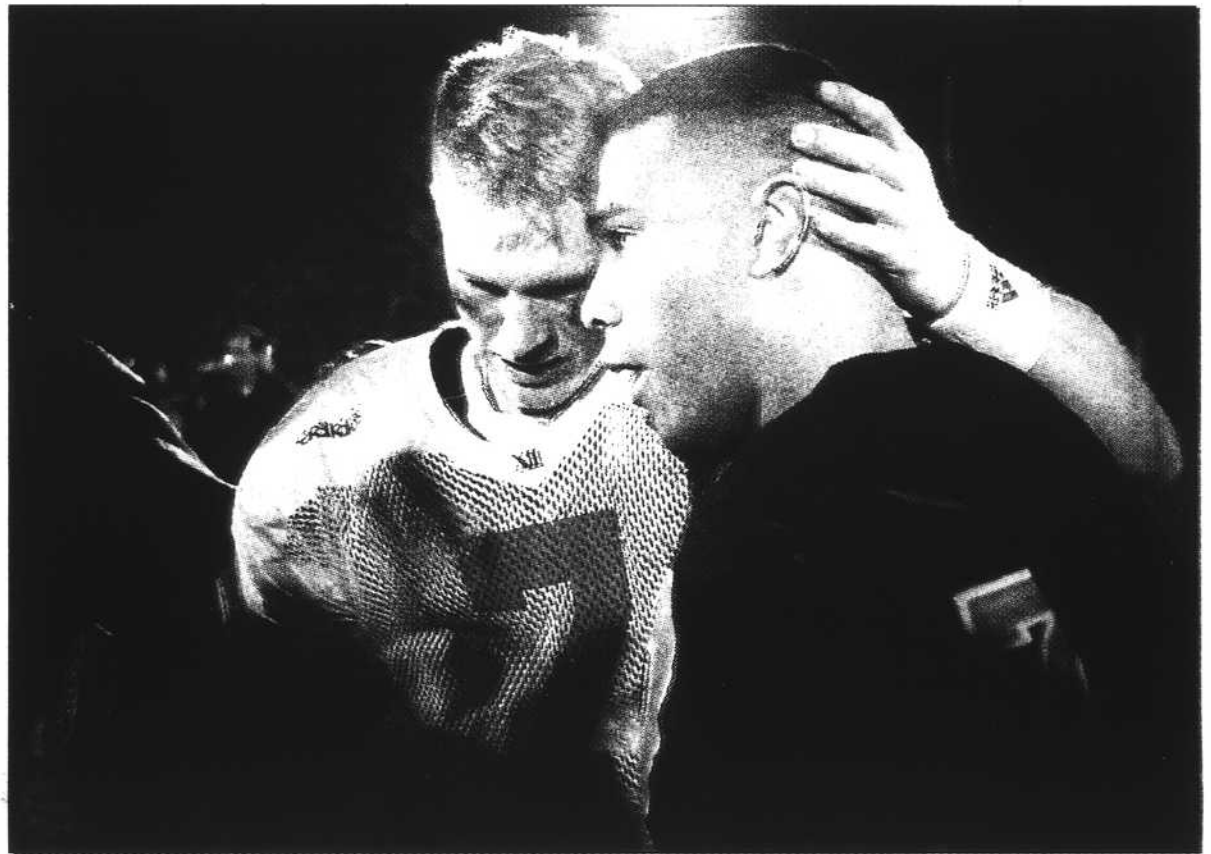

"I want to be quarterback. That's it."

- Bobby Newcombe, one of three Huskers who competed for the starting quarterback position

MATT MILLER/DN

The Huskers will lose only two players - Lisa Reitsma and Renee Saunders

RYAN SODERLIN/DN

NEBRASKA QUARTERBACK SCOTT FROST and Missouri Quarterback Corby Jones share their thoughts after Nebraska's 45-38 overtime win. Jones had 293 total yards of offense as Missouri moved to 25th place in The Associated Press top 25, despite its loss.

MATT MILLER/DN

JENNY BENSON, an NU soccer player, cries after the Huskers lost their Big 12 title to Texas A&M in San Antonio last November. The Huskers reached the second round of the NCAA Tournament.