1986 All-Americans Tisha Delaney, Karen Dahlgren and Enid Schonewise.

The 1986 team finished 29-6 and advanced to the national championship game, losing to Pacific in the finals. It was the first Nebraska team to advance to the national championship match.

"The 1986 was the first team to take us to the Final Four, and eventually all six players that started were All-Americans," Pettit said. "This match gives us a chance to recognize some great players from the past, particularly from that 1986 team."

Although the Alumni Match will bring many current and former Huskers together, Pettit said it will not be entirely for fun.

"I don't know if scrimmage is the word; we'll play this as if it is a regular match," Pettit said. "It gives us a chance to have a match before we open with Creighton and next week in San Diego."

The team knows the Alumni Match is an important start to the season, but Korver said the team is looking forward to playing against familiar competition.

"It doesn't change the way we prepare, but it is definitely a lot of fun."
