

NU golfers take 3rd in California

BY JASON MERRIHEW
Staff writer

While classes began this week, the Nebraska men's golf team was hitting the links in the Stevinson Ranch Invite at Stevinson, Calif.

The 11th-ranked Cornhuskers finished third at the three-day Invite, the lowest finish of the spring season.

NU finished behind Big 12 rival Kansas and 24th-ranked Fresno State. The Jayhawks edged out the Bulldogs by eight strokes and the Huskers by ten strokes.

KU was led by individual winner Jake Istnick. Istnick finished tied with Joel Kribel of Stanford with a score of 212. The tie-breaker went to the golfer with the lowest final round. Istnick shot a 71, while Kribel shot a 74.

Nebraska senior Jamie Rogers was the Huskers' top finisher, only one stroke behind Istnick and Kribel with a score of 213, three under par.

Nebraska's second-best finisher was senior Josh Madden. Madden tied for 12th with a score of 220, four strokes over par.

Senior Steve Friesen tied for 15th with a 221, five strokes over par. Nineteenth place went to senior Scott Gutschewski. Gutschewski shot a 222, six shots over par.

NU freshman Seth Porter finished with a 231, 15 shots over par. Porter finished 52nd in his first action of the spring season.

Nebraska will not compete in a tournament until April 12-13 at the Wheatshocker Invitational, in Wichita, Kan.
